Accomplishments

As an independent, not-for-profit health care system, Children's provides care through over 14,678 inpatient admissions, 96,206 emergency room visits, and 362,785 primary and specialty care visits in 2015. The three largest services that the Foundation provides are to fund capital expenses, research, and annual expenses for programs. These funds are transferred to Children's throughout the year and provide needed support to champion the special health needs of children. Programs: Annual operations support for programs support expert interdisciplinary teams of physicians, nurses, and health care professionals able to address the most complex and difficult pediatric medical problems. A majority of program support is provided to non-reimbursable services that are essential in the healing process for children and families.
