Return Reference	Explanation
Pt I Line 2	The Organization has no formal procedure for monitoring the use of grant/assistance funds. Funds are awarded based on a preliminary review of the need and/or purpose as communicated by the individual or organization making the request. As members of the community, members of the Organization are usually able to observe first hand how the funds are used and if they are used for the requested need/purpose. If possible, the Organization will grant funds to an administrative body, such as the Veterans Administration Hospital, which in turn will use the funds for the intended direct benefit of hospitalized veterans. If another request is made at a subsequent date, the Organization is able to ask pertinent questions as to the benefits realized from the prior grant before another grant is considered.

For the compensation of the Organization's CEO, the time requirements, responsibilities, and history/tradition of the position are taken into consideration by the governing body when determining whether the position warrants compensation. Officer positions usually are not compensated. If the position does warrant compensation, the level of pay is established after reviewing the time requirements of the position, comparison to similar positions and the applicable compensation of other exempt organizations, and the review , discussion, and approval of the governing body. The entire process is documented in the contemporaneous minutes of the meeting(s) at which the compensation issue is taken under consideration.
