Return Reference	Explanation
Pt I Line 2	Most of the women who received this assistance were in the aftercare program (although some were in residence) which provides various kinds of support to previous residents for up to a year. Contact is continued through home visits, support group participation, phone calls, and mail. Except for the savings match payments, the payments noted were to third parties. Of the $7,604 in transportation noted above, the 25 received specific assistance totaling $3,105. The remaining $4,499 was for cab fare, gas cards, and bus passes that were provided to a number of additional aftercare and in-house residents.

Return Reference	Explanation
Other	Line 31 - We have not received this type of contribution to date. However, if one is offered in the future, a group comprised of the executive director, selected board members, and perhaps an outside consultant would be gathered to determine the appropriateness of accepting such a contribution.
Pt I Line 32b	The only third party used in relation to noncash contributions is the nationally-known brokerage firm that sells contributed, publicly-traded securities. We have a policy to sell them immediately to avoid the risk of the value declining. The relationship with the individual broker within the firm that handles the transactions is of a business-nature only.

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Other	Pt III - Volunteer program - since the services of our volunteers generally do not require specialized skills, their value is not recorded in the audited financial statements because no objective basis is available to measure the value. An estimate of the value of such services is not included in the 990 per IRS instructions. TWSH generally pays for services requiring specific expertise.
Pt VI, Line 11b	The 990 draft was emailed to board members with a comment period and a request that each member respond during that period with either an approval or with additions/corrections. Responses were then summarized and any changes were forwarded to the tax preparer.

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Pt VI, Line 12c	All board members, including new members, are required to sign the conflict of interest statement on an annual basis
Pt VI, Line 15a	and Line 15b - Annually, generally in May, the board president sends an executive director review form to board members, compiles the results of the comments, and meets with the executive to report the comments/recommendations of the board members At this time the executive director submits a self-review After a formal discussion with the executive committee, annual goals and objectives are set and remuneration is reviewed and determined The compensation of the executive director and other key employees is consistent with others in similar organizations in the St Louis area Budgetary considerations are also taken into account when determining compensation

Other	Pt IX, Line 26 - The cost of staff time for combined educational and fundraising activities that qualify for joint cost allocation is in Part IX, line 26
Pt XII, Line 2c	The finance committee reviews the audited financial statements, selects the auditors and outside accountant, and closely monitors the financial information throughout the year

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Pt VIII	Line 8c - There is often a loss on line 8c since the fair market value of event tickets, raffles, silent auctions, etc is less than the direct costs Expenses for postage and printing of invitations, program printing, costs of awards, if any, and other misc expenses are not part of the FMV of the ticket price so become expenses not offset by revenue on line 8 If you include the contributions received for the events on line 8a, you will see that the contributions (sponsorships, general contributions, and ticket prices in excess of FMV of the tickets) are more than the event costs Contributions must be separated from FMV of tickets, raffles, etc per the 990 instructions, as part of the public support test computation on Sch A, page 2
