Return Reference	Explanation
Part X, Line 2	The Foundation is exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. The Foundation's accounting policy is to provide liabilities for uncertain income tax provisions when a liability is probable and estimable. The Foundation has no uncertain income tax positions for the years ended December 31, 2015 and 2014. The Foundation is no longer subject to audits by the IRS for years prior to 2012; management is not aware of any violation of its tax status as an organization exempt from income taxes.
Schedule D Parts XI and XII Line 2d, and Part XI line 4b	The audited financial statements include the activities of various supporting foundations that file separate 990s. This 990 includes only the activities of the Jewish Community Foundation of Greater Kansas City. The amount of revenue recorded in the consolidated financial statements attributable to these supporting foundations and not included in the foundation 990 is $1,787,147. The comparable amount of expense is $2,731,537. The Foundation received inter-fund transfers from these supporting Foundations in the amount of $5,615,087 which were recorded as contributions on the 990, but were not included as income on the audited financial statements.

Part I, Line 2	Schedule I Part 1 Line 2
Schedule I, Part 1, Line 2	Before a grant is issued from any fund, the Foundation's staff reviews the grant recommendation for appropriateness, checking for such issues as the risk of personal benefit, proper authorization and grantee approval. If necessary, staff will contact the fund representative to clarify those requests that might appear to involve personal benefits. As a safeguard, grants to charities that are known to provide benefits to their donors are sent with an accompanying letter warning the grantee that no personal benefits can be provided to anyone in exchange for the grant. If it comes to the knowledge of the staff that a personal benefit was provided, a grant refund is requested. Grant letters also specify the purpose of the grant, and where appropriate, the reporting responsibilities of the grantee. These reports are used to determine whether the grantee used the funds in the manner requested. The Foundation maintains a list of approved grantees that have had their 501(c)(3) status verified either by the IRS website list of charities, or by written documentation received from the charity.
