a multi-media, interactive educational program designed to enable the public to reach out to its elected and appointed officials, air their concerns, and advocate their positions.

Form 990 - Part III Line 4a

The Citizen's Assembly contacted over 6.7 million Americans, providing them information on issues such as the threat to America's national sovereignty, the national movement to give Amnesty to illegal aliens, and the on-going raiding and spending of the Social Security Trust Fund.

With the help of its supporters, the organization was able to deliver over 2.5 million Petitions to Capitol Hill, signed by the American people demanding that legislation be passed regarding these important issues:

Over 6.7 million Americans were alerted about the threat to America's national sovereignty and the organization collected 2.5 million petitions for delivery to elected officials in Washington demanding that action be taken to stop the surrender of America's sovereignty to the United Nations.

The Citizen's Assembly is committed to giving Americans the chance to have their voice heard on Capitol Hill and throughout Washington, DC on these crucial issues that are essential to the nation's future.

The Citizen's Assembly not only reached out to these Americans on these issues, but also asked them about which actions they think should be priorities for their elected and appointed leadership. In addition to this direct outreach, The Citizen's Assembly also
