Check if Schedule O contains a response or note to any line in this Part III

1 Briefly describe the organization's mission

Angels of America's Fallen is a national rapidly expanding, non-profit organization with the sole purpose of standing with the children of America's fallen military and first responders while also honoring their fallen parent's legacy. We enter each child's journey to help them write their own stories of success during their most critical developmental years. We do this by directly funding, on an individual basis, the healthy developmental activity of their choice (with a coach or instructor). The results are amazing and it is a unique pleasure to see positive transformation in the lives of the children of America's fallen. We are unique in that children can qualify for our program whether their parent fell during training, in combat, from an illness, or while serving at home or abroad. Additionally, children whose parents who have exited service and are diagnosed with service-related PTSD are also eligible.
