Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 11b - An annual independent audit was completed prior to the preparation of Form 990 (to allow for greater assurance of financial disclosures). Form 990 was then prepared internally and provided to a national public accounting firm for review and comment. The updated Form 990 was then provided to the entire Board of Directors for review, comment, and approval before then being submitted to the IRS.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c - Board of Directors and Executives are asked to declare any conflicts of interests annually. This process is formalized at the annual board meeting of the board of directors. If such a conflict arises, the bylaws of the corporation spell out the procedure for addressing the conflict which involves the person to excuse themselves from all decisions regarding the conflict of interest. In addition, the by-laws provide for corrective action should a conflict of interest not be disclosed in a timely manner. Any director, principal officer, or member of a committee with governing board delegated powers, who has a direct or indirect financial interest through business, investment, or family through: (a.) An ownership or investment interest in any entity with which the corporation has a transaction or arrangement, (b.) A compensation arrangement with the corporation or with any entity or individual with which the corporation has a transaction or arrangement, or (c.) A potential ownership or investment interest in, or compensation arrangement with, any entity or individual with which the corporation is negotiating a transaction or arrangement. Compensation includes direct and indirect remuneration as well as gifts or favors that are not insubstantial. In connection with any actual or possible conflict of interest, an interested person must disclose the existence of the financial interest and be given the opportunity to disclose all material facts to the directors and members of committees with board delegated powers considering the proposed transaction or arrangement. After disclosure of the financial interest and all material facts, and after any discussion with the interested person, he/she shall leave the governing board or committee meeting while the determination of a conflict of interest is discussed and voted upon. The remaining board or committee members shall decide if a conflict of interest exists. An interested person may make a presentation at the board or committee meeting, but after the presentation, he/she shall leave the meeting during the discussion of, and the vote on, the transaction or arrangement involving the possible conflict of interest. The chairperson of the board or committee shall, if appropriate, appoint a disinterested person or committee to investigate alternatives to the proposed transaction or arrangement. After exercising due diligence, the board or committee shall determine whether the corporation can obtain with reasonable efforts a more advantageous transaction or arrangement from a person or entity that would not give rise to a conflict of interest.
