Part I Summary

Activities & Governance

1 Briefly describe the organization's mission or most significant activities

The Parker Institute for Cancer Immunotherapy (PICI) was created to encourage advances in cancer immunotherapy research and to help reduce obstacles to collaboration, discovery and translation of these advances for patients. The Institute intends to achieve this goal by funding and establishing a consortium of preeminent academic and medical research institutions which will work collaboratively on research in the field of cancer immunology (the "Consortium")
