Description

Part VII-A, Line 2

The Kent C. & Nancy Ericksen Foundation (the "Foundation") identifies and makes distributions to other § 501(c)(3) tax-exempt charities as well as assists disadvantaged individuals needing financial assistance in obtaining food, shelter, an education or some type of vocational training, medical, or other assistance. In general, the Foundation does not disburse funds directly to the individuals, but to the organization(s) to cover the cost of the services provided to the individual. However, the Foundation also makes distributions directly to individuals when the Trustees determine that a direct distribution will efficiently further the charitable purposes of the Foundation or there is no operating § 501(c)(3) organization that performs the function to satisfy the individual recipient's needs. Indirect and direct distributions to individuals may be made to provide for food, clothing, shelter, furniture, dental or medical care for indigents, direct cash assistance or payment for sudden and emergent life events such as death or funeral arrangements for indigents, or provision of resources to enable a recipient to better herself and obtain gainful employment such as education, vocational training, tattoo removal, transportation, and financial counseling.

When making grants or other assistance directly to or for domestic individuals, the Foundation maintains records to substantiate the amount of the grants or assistance, the grantees' eligibility for the grants or assistance, and the selection criteria used to award the grants or assistance. For grants that are not to an individual for travel, study, or similar purposes by such individual, but qualify as charitable grants under $ 170(c)(2)(B), the Foundation maintains a record of the type of grant or assistance and the Foundation purpose advanced by the grant, the number of recipients, the amount of any cash grants, the amount of any non-cash assistance, the method of valuation (book, FMV, appraisal, etc.), and a description of non-cash assistance. An example of the log for maintaining records is enclosed with the title "Grants and Other Assistance to Domestic Individuals for The Kent C. & Nancy Ericksen Foundation."

For grants that are to an individual for travel, study, or similar purposes by such individual, the Foundation will maintain a log substantially similar to the log for other individual grants and assistance. Additionally, the Foundation has implemented a process to ensure that the grant is awarded on an objective and nondiscriminatory basis, the grant constitutes a scholarship or fellowship grant that is used for qualified tuition and related expenses at an educational organization which normally maintains a regular faculty and curriculum and normally has a regularly enrolled body of pupils or students in attendance at the place where its educational activities are regularly carried on, the grant is a prize or award to a recipient selected without any action on his part to obtain the award, the recipient is not required to render substantial future services as a condition to receiving the prize or award, and the recipient of such prize or award is selected from the general public, or the purpose of the grant is to achieve a specific objective, produce a report or other similar product, or improve or enhance a literary, artistic, musical, scientific, teaching, or other similar capacity, skill, or talent of the grantee. The procedures that the Foundation has adopted are reasonably calculated to result in performance by grantees of the activities that the grants are intended to finance, and the foundation supervises grants to determine whether grantees have fulfilled the grant terms. The procedures that have been adopted for these types of grants are enclosed with the title "Individual Grant Procedures for The Kent C. & Nancy Ericksen Foundation," as well as an example of a letter to grant recipients explaining the grantees' duty to use grant receipts in accordance with the Foundation's purposes with the title "Example of Individual Grant Letter for The Kent C. and Nancy Ericksen Foundation."
