Supplemental Information. Provide the information required in Part I, line 2, Part III, column (b), and any other additional information.

Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule I, Part I, Line 2	Individuals who are being served by Family Service and Guidance Center may request, through their FSGC provider, funds that will specifically assist them in maintaining their current living situation or enhance their treatment compliance. The FSGC provider will recommend the request for approval or denial and, if approved by a member of Leadership, funds up to $500 per consumer per year will be disbursed. In most cases payments are made to a third party (landlord, utility company, pharmacy, etc ) rather than directly to the family to help ensure that funds are used for the purposes intended.
