In addition, Mainstream co-sponsored educational events held by partner organizations across the region, reaching even more citizens. In the Fall, Mainstream hosted its signature event, Stand Up Speak Out, where hundreds of people gathered for a banquet honoring individuals and groups who took a stand to educate their peers and the public at large on these same issues.

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15	The Board of Directors conducts an annual review of the Executive Director. Each of the 18 board members completes a review and the Executive Director completes a self review. The Personnel Committee compiles the data. In 2015 this process was chaired by the Board's Vice President. The Personnel Committee Chair and the Board President met with the Executive Director to discuss the review and to highlight successes and areas for improvement. The Personnel Committee makes a recommendation on the potential of a compensation increase to the Executive Committee who determines whether to approve the increase. The approved compensation is included in the next year's budget document which is reviewed and approved by the Executive Committee and full board. In determining whether a compensation increase is warranted, the Personnel Committee reviews the personnel review, the success in meeting the organization's goals and specifically budgetary goals and bi-annually reviews the Kansas City metro-wide salary study of compensation for nonprofit professionals. Other key staff have reviews with the Executive Director. Compensation is based on performance and budget constraints. The Executive director makes recommendations to the Executive Committee who approves the budget and then submits to the full Board for their review. This process is undertaken annually and was last completed in December of 2015.
Form 990, Part VI, Section C, Line 19	The governing documents, conflict of interest policy, and financial statements are not made available to the public.
