During 2015, FFT again conducted its Backpack program. This program discreetly provides a nutritious bag of food each Friday to children attending our local schools. These children participate in free and reduced meal programs during the school week, but are at risk for food insecurity on the weekend. Each food bag is placed in the child's backpack for weekend consumption. The food provided is kid friendly and requires no refrigeration, stoves, dishes, or flatware. During the 2015 calendar year, FFT provided 9,154 bags of food through this program. This program started in 2006.

4b (Code) (Expenses $ 26,450 including grants of $) (Revenue $)

During the school break June 1, 2015 through August 14, 2015 FFT conducted the Summer Food Service Program SFSP. This program provided free meals to children ages 2-18 Monday-Friday at four serving locations. These locations were selected due to their proximity to elementary schools with high incidences of students receiving free meals during the school year. Consequently, the children receiving meals through the SFSP are likely the same children participating in the school meal programs. During this period 4,523 free meals were served at these four sites. Without this program, these children might not have received adequate nutrition during the school break. This was the 4th year we have conducted this program.
