Return Reference	Explanation
Liability for Uncertain Tax Position (ASC 740)	Schedule D, Part X, Line 2 NSSLHA is exempt from federal income tax under IRC section 501(c)(3), though it is subject to tax on income unrelated to its exempt purpose, unless that income is otherwise excluded by the Code. NSSLHA has processes presently in place to ensure the maintenance of its tax-exempt status, to identify and report unrelated income, to determine its filing and tax obligations in jurisdictions for which it has nexus, and to identify and evaluate other matters that may be considered tax positions. The tax years ending December 31, 2015, 2014, 2013, and 2012 are still open to audit for both federal and state purposes. NSSLHA has determined that there are no material uncertain tax positions that require recognition or disclosure in the financial statements. For the year ending December 31, 2015, NSSLHA reported unrelated business income tax, for federal and state purposes, which is immaterial for financial statement purposes. NSSLHA does not have federal or state operating losses to reduce these tax liabilities. NSSLHA follows guidance that clarifies the accounting for uncertainty in tax positions taken or expected to be taken in a tax return, including issues relating to financial statement recognition and measurement. This guidance provides that the tax effects from an uncertain tax position can only be recognized in the financial statements if the position is "more-likely-than-not" to be sustained if the position were to be challenged by a taxing authority. The assessment of the tax position is based solely on the technical merits of the position, without regard to the likelihood that the tax position may be challenged. The adoption of ASC 740-10 did not have a material impact on NSSLHA's financial statements, as management determined that there are no uncertain tax positions within its financial statements.
