Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11	An outside accounting firm prepares the federal form 990 using information provided to the firm. The return is reviewed by senior management and general counsel. The Finance and Audit Committee reviews the federal form 990 prior to the submission with the IRS.

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c	The coalition has instituted a mandatory disclosure policy under which directors, officers, committee members, employees, volunteers and other individuals are required on an annual basis to sign and submit an annual mandatory disclosure statement to the chairman of the board, the executive director, the general counsel or the chief financial officer/controller. The chief financial officer/controller will maintain and annually update a file of mandatory disclosure statements signed by each specified individual. If the conflict of interest arises in connection with the activities of any deliberative body (e.g., the board of directors), the individual with the conflict must immediately disclose the conflict to the other members of the body and the individual must not participate in the deliberation, consideration or vote on the transaction or matter at issue. A notation must be made in the minutes of any meeting at which deliberation, consideration or vote on the transaction or matter at issue is undertaken indicating that the individual with a conflict or potential conflict of interest was excused from the meeting during the time that consideration of the transaction or matter was undertaken, took no part in any discussion pertaining to the transaction or matter and refrained from voting on the transaction or matter.
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15	The chairman appoints a compensation committee of no less than 5 members of the governing boards. The committee, along with the chairman, reviews and approves the compensation for the executive director and staff based on performance metrics and comparable salary data. In addition, outside consultants advise the board on compensation matters. No staff member has any role in the determination by the compensation committee of their own compensation. All meetings of the compensation committee are memorialized by contemporaneous minutes of the deliberations and decisions.
