The minutes reflect the budget committee's recommendation and the approval of the board. For Question 15a, while the organization does not strictly use comparability data for its top management official, that is because he receives a very small salary, well below the market range for a similar organization. For Question 15b, the question is answered "no" because there are no persons listed in Form 990, Part VIII that fall under the "other officer or "key employee" classification.
