Part III Statement of Program Service AccomplishmentsCheck if Schedule O contains a response or note to any line in this Part III ☐1 Briefly describe the organization's mission:

The Association is organized principally to represent the whole of the United States travel industry and to promote and facilitate increased travel to and within the United States. Activities include trade events, advocating on behalf of the travel industry, research projects, publications and educational meetings to service the travel industry.

2 Did the organization undertake any significant program services during the year which were not listed on the prior Form 990 or 990-EZ? ☐ Yes ☒ No

If "Yes," describe these new services on Schedule O.

3 Did the organization cease conducting, or make significant changes in how it conducts, any program services? ☐ Yes ☒ No

If "Yes," describe these changes on Schedule O.

4 Describe the organization's program service accomplishments for each of its three largest program services, as measured by expenses. Section 501(c)(3) and 501(c)(4) organizations are required to report the amount of grants and allocations to others, the total expenses, and revenue, if any, for each program service reported.4a (Code:) (Expenses $ including grants of $) (Revenue $)

Trade Show -IPW -- US Travel IPW is the travel industry's premier international marketplace and is the largest generator of international travel to the U.S.. More than 1,000 US travel organizations from every region of the USA and representing all industry category components, and over 1,300 international and domestic buyers from more than 70 countries conduct business negotiations that result in the generation of over $4.7 billion in future Visit USA travel. At IPW buyers and sellers are able to conduct business that would otherwise be generated only through an exhaustive number of around-the-world trips.

4b (Code:) (Expenses $ including grants of $) (Revenue $)

Other Trade Shows and Events - The Educational Seminar for Tourism Organizations (ESTO) is the premier annual learning and knowledge-sharing forum for destination marketing professionals. It is unique in that it is created by and exclusively for this specific target audience. ESTO is not open to other industry sectors. ESTO is the place where destination professionals go to learn about new tools and techniques, share best practices, and debate pressing issues affecting destinations in a non-sales environment

4c (Code:) (Expenses $ including grants of $) (Revenue $)

Research - U.S. Travel Association is the best source of knowledge on travel research. The Research Products Catalog contains a listing of reports that highlight marketing research, economic research and analysis available by subscription. Domestic Travel - Americans traveling within the U.S. on leisure or business trips are crucial to our national, state, and local economies. Americans travel for a variety of reasons and vary widely in demographic characteristics and travel behavior. Understanding your target audience is a key to successful marketing and capturing your share of the domestic travel market. International Travel - The U.S. Travel Association's International Visitor Information System provides a wealth of information on the highly lucrative international travel market. With average spending five times higher than domestic travelers, international visitors are a highly lucrative market for the U.S. and its destinations and attractions. Economic Research - Economic research conducted by the U.S. Travel Association is designed to provide users with ways in which to gauge the value of travel and tourism to the nation and determine the direction in which trends are heading.

Schedule D, Part X, Line 2 - Under the provisions of Sections 501 (c)(6) and 501 (c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code (IRC) and the applicable income tax regulations of the District of Columbia, the Association is exempt from taxes on income other than unrelated business income. Revenues related to advertising space in Association publications activities are considered unrelated business income, as defined by the IRC. The PAC is exempt from federal income tax under Internal Revenue Code 527, except for investment income, which is subject to tax as unrelated business income. The PAC did not have any unrelated business income for the years ended December 31, 2015 and 2014. Management evaluated the Association's tax positions and concluded that the Association has taken no uncertain tax positions that require adjustments to the consolidated financial statements to comply with the provisions of this guidance.

Schedule D, Part XI, Line 2d - Revenue from US Travel PAC included in financial statements but not on form 990 - $543,809; Revenue of the Travel Industry Association of America Foundation is reported as a part of the consolidated financial statements but this entity files a separate form 990 ($100). Form 990, Part VI, Section A, Line 6 - U.S. Travel Association has more than 1,300 member organizations within the following categories of travel service providers, destinations, allied/affiliates and travel associations

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 11b - The form 990 and supporting documentation is prepared by the Controller, it is then reviewed by the Vice President of Finance, next reviewed by the Executive Vice President of Operations, and then reviewed and signed by the President/Chief Executive Officer. The form 990 is provided to the Executive Committee of the Board for review

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c - Each director, officer and member of a committee with Board delegated powers shall be required annually to sign a statement which affirms such person: (a) Has received a copy of the conflict of interest policy, (b) Has read and understands the policy (c) Has agreed to comply with the policy, and (d) Understands the Organization is a non-profit trade association and in order to maintain its federal tax exemption it must engage primarily in activities which accomplish one or more of its tax-exempt purposes. To ensure the Organization operates in a manner consistent with its tax-exempt purposes and does not engage in activities that could jeopardize its tax-exempt status, periodic reviews shall be conducted. The periodic reviews shall, at a minimum, include the following subjects: (a) Whether compensation arrangements and benefits are reasonable, based on competent survey information, and the result of arm's length bargaining; and (b) Whether partnerships, joint ventures, contracts and arrangements with management organizations or vendors conform to the Organization's written policies, are properly recorded, reflect reasonable investment or payments for goods and services, further the Organization's tax-exempt purposes and do not result in inurement, impermissible private benefit or in an excess benefit transaction.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15 - Compensation for all employees is subject to a periodic comparison to industry standards based on position and experience. This comparison is done on an employee by employee basis for all Association employees. The results are then reviewed and approved by upper-level management. All compensation is reviewed by a compensation committee composed of members from the Board of Directors who have no association or ties to employees other than their capacity as Association Board members. The President /Chief Executive Officer is the only employee with an employment contract

Form 990, Part VI, Section C, Line 19 - Governing documents are made available to the public on request

Form 990, Part IX, Line 11g - Professional fees for Research services $571,361 and Other Professional fees $1,769,906
