The buildings are located on a large piece of land and the foundation has its headquarters located on the land. Project HOPE also uses the property to provide a conference center.

Schedule D, Part V, Line 4 - Project HOPE has five endowments that were set up to provide income for programmatic expenses. There is also an endowment which has no restrictions on the income. The income is used for general support of the organization.

Schedule D, Part X, Line 2 - Schedule D, Part X, Line 2 - Income taxes: The Foundation is exempt from federal income taxes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, except on activities unrelated to its exempt purpose. In addition, the Foundation qualifies for the charitable contribution deduction and has been classified as an organization that is not a private foundation. The Foundation follows the accounting standard on accounting for uncertainty in income taxes, which addresses the determination of whether tax benefits claimed or expected to be claimed on a tax return should be recorded in the financial statements. Under this guidance, the Foundation may recognize the tax benefit from an uncertain tax position only if it is more likely than not that the tax benefits recognized in the financial statements from such a position are measured based on the largest benefit that has a greater than 50% likelihood of being realized upon ultimate settlement. The guidance on accounting for uncertainty in income taxes also addresses de-recognition, classification, interest and penalties on income taxes, and accounting in interim periods. Management evaluated the Foundation's tax positions and concluded that the Foundation had taken no uncertain tax positions that require adjustment to the financial statements to comply with the provisions of this guidance. Generally, the Foundation is no longer subject to income tax examinations by the U.S. federal, state or local tax authorities for years before 2011.

This income is treated as taxable compensation and included in the total compensation. Additionally, it establishes the organizational and individual performance goals for the Chief Executive Officer. Annually, the said Committee reviews the performance of the Chief Executive Officer and recommends any compensation changes. At the same frequency, the Management Development and Compensation Committee oversees all aspects of compensation provided to other executives to ensure compliance with the intermediate sanctions provisions of the Internal Revenue Code. The Committee further prepares regular reports disclosing committee actions and recommendations to the full Board of Directors in performing their duties related to the determination of officer compensation, the Management Development and Compensation Committee relies on support from an independent external compensation consultant who has been engaged by the Committee. Overall, the Committee follows standard protocols and intermediate sanctions guidelines which include the three procedural requirements for earning the presumption of reasonableness: 1. Compensation actions are approved in advance by the Management Development and Compensation committee members, none of whom have a conflict of interest with respect to the proposed actions. 2. The board or committee obtains or relies upon appropriate data as the comparability of the compensation or fair market value of the consideration, and 3. The committee documents the basis for its determination adequately and contemporaneously.
