EndPoverty.org demonstrates God's love by enabling the very poor of the world to lift themselves, their families and their communities out of poverty. This mission is accomplished by offering business training to low income persons who have the potential and desire to be self-supporting, providing small loans to poor entrepreneurs who have viable business ideas but need capital, and mentoring participants through ongoing personal and professional encouragement all through a network of locally-led organizations around the world.

If "Yes," describe these new services on Schedule O

If "Yes," describe these changes on Schedule O

4 Describe the organization's program service accomplishments for each of its three largest program services, as measured by expenses. Section 501(c)(3) and 501(c)(4) organizations are required to report the amount of grants and allocations to others, the total expenses, and revenue, if any, for each program service reported.

4a (Code) (Expenses $ 295,780 including grants of $ 171,375) (Revenue $ 3,435)

We work with indigenous partner organizations in the developing world to provide life-transforming microloans that equip hard working individuals and families to lift themselves out of poverty. We build the capacity of our partner organizations through funding, staff training, and leadership development.

Return Reference	Explanation
Part X, Line 2	The financial statement effects of a tax position taken or expected to be taken are recognized in the financial statements when it is more likely than not, based on the technical merits, that the position will be sustained upon examination. Interest and penalties, if any, are included in expenses in the statement of activities. As of December 31, 2015, Endpoverty had no uncertain tax positions that qualify for recognition or disclosure in the financial statements. Endpoverty files information tax returns in the U S and various states. Endpoverty is generally no longer subject to U S federal and state income tax examinations by tax authorities for years before 2012.
