b Did the organization have any excess business holdings in the tax year? (Use Schedule C, Form 4720, to determine whether the organization had excess business holdings). 11 Has the organization accepted a gift or contribution from any of the following persons?
a A person who directly or indirectly controls, either alone or together with persons described in (b) and (c) below, the governing body of a supported organization?
b A family member of a person described in (a) above?
c A 35% controlled entity of a person described in (a) or (b) above? If "Yes" to a, b, or c, provide detail in Part VI.

Part IV

Section B. Type I Supporting Organizations

	Yes	No
1 Did the directors, trustees, or membership of one or more supported organizations have the power to regularly appoint or elect at least a majority of the organization’s directors or trustees at all times during the tax year? If "No," describe in Part VI how the supported organization(s) effectively operated, supervised, or controlled the organization’s activities. If the organization had more than one supported organization, describe how the powers to appoint and/or remove directors or trustees were allocated among the supported organizations and what conditions or restrictions, if any, applied to such powers during the tax year.
2 Did the organization operate for the benefit of any supported organization other than the supported organization(s) that operated, supervised, or controlled the supporting organization? If "Yes," explain in Part VI how providing such benefit carried out the purposes of the supported organization(s) that operated, supervised or controlled the supporting organization.

Section C. Type II Supporting Organizations

	Yes	No
1 Were a majority of the organization’s directors or trustees during the tax year also a majority of the directors or trustees of each of the organization’s supported organization(s)? If "No," describe in Part VI how control or management of the supporting organization was vested in the same persons that controlled or managed the supported organization(s).

Section D. All Type III Supporting Organizations

	Yes	No
1 Did the organization provide to each of its supported organizations, by the last day of the fifth month of the organization’s tax year, (1) a written notice describing the type and amount of support provided during the prior tax year, (2) a copy of the Form 990 that was most recently filed as of the date of notification, and (3) copies of the organization’s governing documents in effect on the date of notification, to the extent not previously provided?
2 Were any of the organization’s officers, directors, or trustees either (i) appointed or elected by the supported organization(s) or (ii) serving on the governing body of a supported organization? If "No," explain in Part VI how the organization maintained a close and continuous working relationship with the supported organization(s).
3 By reason of the relationship described in (2), did the organization’s supported organizations have a significant voice in the organization’s investment policies and in directing the use of the organization’s income or assets at all times during the tax year? If "Yes," describe in Part VI the role the organization’s supported organizations played in this regard.

Return Reference	Explanation
Part II-B, Line 1	In 2015, IJM staff mobilized volunteers to lobby in support of S. 553, the End Modern Slavery Initiative Act. These volunteer activities included contacting Members of Congress in person in Washington, DC and at home in the district, via email, social media, and phone. IJM reached volunteers through in-person trainings, phone, web, email, and social media. IJM staff were also involved in direct lobbying in support of the legislation, as well as lobbying in support of appropriations to support the Trafficking in Persons Office and to combat cybersex trafficking in the Philippines. IJM staff in Kenya lobbied the Kenyan legislature to vote no on Police Amendment Bills 17 and 18.

Part IV, Line 2b	Client Funds (Escrow) Accounts are funded by a settlement or court order judgment in favor of IJM Clients and held in a separate IJM account (in the Field Office in which they are served) on behalf of the clients until they (the clients) set up their own bank account or request the funds for use in payment of their own recovery related expenses
Part X, Line 2	The Organization is generally exempt from federal income taxes under the provisions of Section 501 (c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code (the Code). In addition, the Organization qualifies for charitable contribution deductions and has been classified as an organization that is not a private foundation. Income, which is not related to exempt purposes, less applicable deductions, is subject to federal and state corporate income taxes. The Organization did not have any net unrelated business income for the year ended December 31, 2015. The Organization complies with the accounting for uncertainty in income taxes topic, which addresses the determination of whether tax benefits claimed or expected to be claimed on a tax return should be recorded in the financial statements. Under this policy, the Organization may recognize the tax benefit from an uncertain tax position only if it is more-likely-than-not that the tax position would be sustained on examination by taxing authorities, based on the technical merits of the position. Management has evaluated the Organization's tax positions and has concluded that the Organization has taken no uncertain tax positions that require adjustment to the financial statements to comply with provisions of this guideline. The Organization would be liable for income taxes in the U.S. federal jurisdiction. Generally, the Organization is no longer subject to U.S. federal tax examinations by tax authorities before 2012.

990 Schedule F, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Part I, Line 2	For cash grants that are given by the organization, IJM requires, at a minimum, quarterly budget to actual reports for the project that has been funded by the grant. For some project grants, the reporting requirement is monthly. Further, IJM requires a copy of the audited financial statements of the grantee organization, when available. IJM also reserves the right to examine pertinent books, documents and records related to the funds provided.

990 Schedule F, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Part I, line 3	The organization uses GAAP to report expenditures in a foreign region

990 Schedule F, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Schedule F, Supplemental Information	International Justice Mission exists to protect people from violent forces of injustice and to ensure that public justice systems effectively and sustainably protect the poor. In pursuit of this mission, IJM conducts casework on behalf of impoverished victims of violent abuse in Africa, Latin America, South Asia and Southeast Asia. This casework both ensures relief for individual victims of abuse and informs IJM's strategies for pursuing transformational change of public justice systems. Each IJM field office addresses specific forms of oppression that impact the poor in the geographic region. IJM's investigative and legal teams partner with local authorities to ensure perpetrators are arrested, charged and convicted for these violent acts; IJM social workers provide long-term support to victims of the crime. In Africa, IJM field offices defend vulnerable widows and orphans from property grabbing (Uganda), protect children from sexual violence and defend innocent men and women victimized by police (Kenya) and rescue children from forced labor slavery (Ghana). In Latin America, IJM combats sexual violence against children (Bolivia and Guatemala) and rescues victims of sex trafficking (Dominican Republic). In South Asia, IJM combats two forms of modern-day slavery: sex trafficking and forced labor. In Southeast Asia, IJM's casework focus is sex trafficking and other forms of sexual violence (Cambodia and the Philippines). IJM teams bring rescue to victims of these crimes, partner with excellent aftercare providers to ensure survivors are supported as they heal and have achieved significant successes in securing convictions for perpetrators of these crimes. One field office in Southeast Asia (Thailand) conducts casework to ensure that members of hill tribe ethnic minority groups can access the citizenship and attendant benefits to which they are entitled. The goal of this citizenship casework is to decrease vulnerability to sex trafficking and other forms of violent oppression. IJM uses its unique knowledge of systemic gaps, weaknesses and deficiencies gained through individual casework to pursue justice system transformation that ensures the poor are effectively and sustainably served by the public justice systems upon which they must rely for protection. Expense allocation. When possible, IJM records expenses directly to the Field Offices to which they relate; for program expenses not directly allocated to a specific region, IJM allocates expenses based on the percentage of offices located in that region over the total number of offices. Additionally, IJM allocates bank fees and transfer fees as they relate to maintaining bank accounts for each office as well as transfer fees associated with the movement of funds to Field Offices. The allocation used for bank fees is also weighted based on the number of Field Offices in each region. Finally, IJM allocates fundraising expenses to each region based on the budget for that region as a percentage of the total IJM budget.

Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule F, Part IV, line 6	The organization has filed Form 5713 under separate cover to the IRS. The organization is not required to file Form 990-T. While the Organization does not conduct any of its programs within the boycotting countries that require the filing of Form 5713, some members of the Organization have flown airlines related to at least one of these countries to carry out their duties. Due to the broad nature of the instructions and definitions related to the Form, the Organization has determined that it is required to file the Form in order to report the procurement of airfare from companies located in these countries.

Return Reference	Explanation
Part I, Line 1a	International Justice Mission provides companion travel for expatriates as part of the Organization's Staff Care plan. There are two specific instances where companion travel is allowed. These are annual required furlough travel and required attendance at an annual event held by the organization. All travel is subject to the procurement policy of the organization. All companion travel is treated as taxable income to the employee. The organization has a tax equalization program for its expatriate staff. This program equalizes the tax liability of the staff in order to simulate a tax liability equal to what they would pay if they were earning their income at our Head Quarters office in Washington, DC. Any taxes paid on behalf of an employee participating in the tax equalization program are treated as taxable income to that employee. IJM pays for the reasonable and necessary costs of home security services for expatriate employees in host cities where there are significant safety concerns, as deemed appropriate by a designated home security committee. These security services may include one or more security guards based at the employee's home. Employees on Part VII who received these services are Kathryn Wilkes $4,701 Shawn Kohl $14,762. These amounts are treated as taxable income to the employee.

Form 990, Part I, Line 5 and Part V, Line 2a	As of 12/31/2015, IJM employed a total of 707 employees. Of these, 203 were employed at HQ in Washington, DC, 16 were U.S. Expatriates, 4 were Third Country Nationals, and 484 were Local National Staff in our Field Offices. Third Country Nationals are citizens of neither the U.S. nor the country in which they are working, and Local National staff members live in, work in and are citizens of the country in which our office is located. These two types of employees are not subject to U.S. Income taxes and therefore are not reported on IRS Form W-3. The number in part I line 5 (262) relates to the number of employees for whom IJM submitted W-2 forms to the IRS and therefore includes U.S. staff who earned any income from IJM throughout the year, not just the number of staff at year end.
