Agency Funds. Heaven Sent Ministries (HSM) has agreed to receive and process donations for several smaller ministries and then remit those funds to the appropriate ministry. We do this only for organizations or individuals that we have strong connections with and direct information about the use of the funds. We require regular communication from these organizations, and in most cases someone from our staff has actually been to the ministry location.

Monies received that are intended for other organizations are not recorded as revenue to HSM. Because these funds are payable to other organizations, they are recorded as a liability in HSM accounting records until the funds are paid out.
