Supplemental Information

Provide the information, explanation, or descriptions required for Part I, lines 1a, 1b, 3, 4a, 4b, 4c, 5a, 5b, 6a, 6b, 7, and 8, and for Part II. Also complete this part for any additional information

Return Reference	Explanation
Part I, Line 1a	Providence Health & Services Expense Reimbursement Procedures include the following policies. First Class Travel or Charter Travel or Travel of Companions Air travel is reimbursable for tourist or economy class and should be at the least expensive airfare, which permits departures and arrivals at reasonable times and reasonable distance traveled Employees are encouraged to plan in advance to get available discounts. Airline frequent flyer upgrades will never be reimbursed. First class air travel will only be reimbursed when tourist or economy class air travel is not available and business travel is mandated by a supervisor. In the rare circumstance that an executive must fly on a first class full fare ticket, their senior level supervisor must approve this expense. Companion travel will only be reimbursed by the organization for travel related to relocation, and should not exceed two relocation-related visits, unless approved by the Executive Vice President/Chief People and Experience Officer. Spouse or Companion Travel. Travel expenses incurred by a PH&S employee's spouse or companion will not be reimbursed by PH&S unless the spouse or companion Travel. Travel expenses incurred by a PH&S employee's spouse or companion will not be reimbursed by PH&S unless the spouse or companion is required to, or invited to attend a PH&S System-sponsored meeting. These expenses may be considered a taxable benefit by the IRS and if so, will be included on the employee's W-2 During 2015, there was one First Class ticket utilized by Officers, Directors or Key Employees listed on Form 990, Part VII. Tax Indemnifications or Gross-Up Payments Providence Health & Services follows the federal and state taxation laws related to relocation expenses paid to the employee or to a third party on the employee's behalf. They are considered income and are therefore subject to payroll taxes. Based on the way Providence has chosen to pay the relocation expenses, Providence reports reimbursements and payments to vendors as income and these expen

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Iine 12c	Providence Health & Services maintains a conflict of interest policy that applies to board members and management of all Providence-related organizations. The purpose of the policy is to guide and direct those serving the Providence Health & Services' corporations and other legal entities so they can (1) fulfill their fiduciary responsibilities and exercise stew ardship in ways that promote and protect the best interests of Providence and, (2) avoid situations that create a conflict, or the appearance of a conflict, between the interests of an individual associated with Providence and Providence. On an annual basis, each board member and management level employee must complete and submit an updated conflict of interest statement. Conflict of interest disclosures are reviewed by the System Integrity Department working in conjunction with the Department of Legal Affairs. If it is determined that an actual conflict exists, appropriate follow-up action is taken with the individual to rectify the conflict.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15	It is Providence's intention to make financial information accessible and transparent. Although the filing of Form 990 provides insight into how Providence achieves its Mission, delivers its programs and stew ards its finances, deciphering the information directly from Form 990 can be challenging. The following paragraphs provide further information about the process we use to determine compensation for top management, officers and key employees. Providence has a single fiduciary Board, with responsibility for financial oversight associated with fulfillment of the Providence Mission, developing system policies, protecting the assets entrusted to the organization and overseeing the strategic and operational affairs of Providence's legal entities. Providence also maintains a network of community ministry boards with responsibility for quality of care oversight, community relations, advocacy and community needs assessments. Providence has a consistent compensation philosophy for all of its employees, including our senior executives. Salaries for senior executives are reviewed by the Providence Board's Human Resources Committee and approved by the full Board of Directors, none of whom is a Providence employee. The Board retains an independent consultant each year to review salaries of those in the most significant leadership roles in the organization. Part of the consultant's role is to review an extensive array of compensation surveys of large, not-for-profit health care systems in the United States. Providence is one of the larger health systems in the country, and as such, the Board benchmarks executive compensation against other large, not-for-profit health systems whose revenue is similar to that of Providence Base salaries for Providence executives are set at the median level of the market, as identified by the independent consultant and reviewed with the Human Resources Committee. Each year, the Board Chair conducts a formal performance evaluation of the President/CEO that considers input from the other dire
