PEN OR PENCIL POP is a multi-state national mentoring initiative which targets as a priority youth who are ages 8-17, and at risk of delinquency and other detrimental factors. PEN is short for penitentiary, and PENCIL represents education. PEN OR PENCIL involves and offers an extensive menu of structured activities with options to each site to access environmental risk profiles and the target population. Each youth centered developmental activity is aligned with national core education standards, measurable outcomes and performance objectives as outlined by support from the U.S. Department of Justice Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention through completion of a three-year demonstration in March 2015. Implementation of POP occurs during program cycles within a school or calendar year. Training and support includes on-site mentor orientation, annual summer national mentee/mentor and site leader summit, and access to ongoing web-based media and print tools/exercises incorporating advocacy/teaching roles for mentors and generous opportunities for parental engagement.
