Any item that is noted by any volunteer as being a potential conflict of interest is reviewed by legal counsel and then discussed by the leadership team. The leadership team determines the appropriate steps necessary to alleviate, monitor and deal with conflicts, such as restricting the actions of persons with a conflict by prohibiting them from participating in the governing body's deliberation and decisions for a particular transaction. Staff members who are officers or key employees are reminded to communicate conflict of interests to the Association during their annual review process.
