Part XIII Supplemental Information (continued)

Fin No. 48 (ASC Topic 740)

The tax benefit from an uncertain tax position is recognized when it is more likely than not that the position will be sustained upon examination, including resolutions of any related appeals or litigation processes, based on the technical merits.

Although the Foundation is exempt from income taxes on related income, it evaluates whether there are any uncertain tax positions, which may include the characterization of income, such as a characterization of income as passive, a decision to exclude reporting taxable income in a tax return, or a decision to classify a transaction, entity, or other position in a tax return as tax exempt.

The Foundation had no material unrecognized tax benefits and no adjustments to its financial statements were required as of and for the years ended December 31, 2015 and 2014. The Foundation does not expect that unrecognized tax benefits will materially increase within the next twelve months.

All substantial, long-term grants funded by the Foundation are periodically reviewed with the grant recipients either verbally or in writing to ensure that grant funds have been expended in a manner that is consistent with the original approved grant request.
