Part III

Statement of Program Service Accomplishments

Check if Schedule O contains a response or note to any line in this Part III

1

Briefly describe the organization's mission

Moving people to self-sufficiency through financial stabalization, housing and education

2

Did the organization undertake any significant program services during the year which were not listed on the prior Form 990 or 990-EZ?

☐ Yes ☒ No

If "Yes," describe these new services on Schedule O

3

Did the organization cease conducting, or make significant changes in how it conducts, any program services?

☐ Yes ☒ No

If "Yes," describe these changes on Schedule O

4

Describe the organization's program service accomplishments for each of its three largest program services, as measured by expenses Section 501(c)(3) and 501(c)(4) organizations are required to report the amount of grants and allocations to others, the total expenses, and revenue, if any, for each program service reported

4a

(Code) (Expenses $ 826,849 including grants of $ 490,481) (Revenue $)

The Direct Services program provides assistance for rent, mortgage, utilities, food, prescriptions, and transportation to eligible families and individuals to help them retain permanent housing. Case management services help participants assess their situation, determine the root causes of the housing instability, and establish a goal plan to address the issues. Additional supportive services including financial management, education or employment services may also be provided. Following assistance, the case manager continues to work with the participant on accomplishing the goal plan. Participants are tracked at 1 month, 3 months, and 6 months following assistance.

4b

(Code) (Expenses $ 1,227,864 including grants of $ 690,162) (Revenue $)

Housing Services provide a range of services for homeless and near homeless families. CFR operates both short-term (90 days), transitional (up to 24 months), and permanent housing programs for homeless families (minimum of one adult and one child) meeting the HUD definition of homelessness. Operating as an alternative to congregate shelters, homeless families are placed in individual apartments where they have 24 hours of safe, secure housing and maintain a higher degree of normalcy and self-reliance in their everyday routines. Participants are required to actively participate in the case management process and develop life and economic skills to increase their capacity to obtain and retain permanent housing. A variety of support services are provided to help stabilize families while they are in the program including assistance with child care, food, transportation, employment, education, mental and/or physical health needs. Permanent, affordable housing for low income families is offered through a tenant based rental assistance program (TBRA). Participants are required to work and participate in classes and activities to foster their residential stability and self-sufficiency.

4c

(Code) (Expenses $ 547,910 including grants of $) (Revenue $ 312,462)

Office space is leased to a variety of nonprofits at a discounted rate. These partner organizations offer similar services, but with different target populations, and create synergy and comprehensive services for the homeless and near-homeless to ensure the best possible care.

Employment/Education Services offer an array of programs and services to obtain and retain employment. Programs are designed to meet the demands of the job market and prepare participants to earn a sustainable wage. Several programs are offered including GED preparation, employment readiness and retention skills, life skills training, and computer skills enhancement. GED prep classes are designed to meet the needs of the non-traditional student with classes offered in the afternoon and evenings. Students work at their own pace individually with a tutor or in small groups. Child care is provided at no cost to the participant while they are participating in evening classes and activities. The volunteer program provides a variety of administrative and direct service opportunities for individuals or groups to support all of the families served by The Center for Family Resources.

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11	The audit firm presents the draft of the 990 and the 990T to the Finance and Audit committees, as well as the Board of Directors. All board members receive an electronic copy of Form 990 and 990T prior to the filing deadline. The vetted and final 990 and 990T version is approved by the board.
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c	Board Members sign a commitment pledge regarding their responsibilities each year. They also sign a confidentiality policy and complete a Conflict of Interest form which requires that they disclose potential conflicts.
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15a	The Executive Committee did the CEO performance evaluation and conducted an independent review of compensation; their final recommendation was approved by the Board of Directors.
Form 990, Part VI, Section C, line 19	The organization's audited financial report and Form 990 are available on the organization's website. There also is a section on the website that describes the entity's operational policies.
Form 990 Part XII Line 2c	The process for selecting auditors has not changed from the previous year.
Form 990 Part VIII Line 6a	The real property rented by The Center for Family Resources is excluded from the definition of debt-financed property, thus the income from the property is not unrelated business income. Under IRC Sec 514(b)(1) if substantially all of a property's use is directly related to the exercise or performance of an organization's exempt purpose, it is not debt-financed property. Based on a comparison of time used for rental purposes versus used for exempt purposes and based on the portion used for exempt purposes and all purposes, substantially all of a property's use is directly related to the exercise or performance of an organization's exempt purpose. The Center for Family Resources rental income consists largely of short-time use rentals such as by rental of rooms by the hour.
