Part IV, Section A, Line 1 - Supported Organizations Not Listed by Name

There are 7 organizations listed in the governing documents that receive 70% of the support funds distributed by the trust. The remaining 30% is given at the discretion of the trustee. The trustee receives letters from various organizations throughout the year requesting support. The trustee then chooses those organizations he feels most needs the support of the trust. Once the trustee decides which organization he will send support to, he requests a copy of their 501(c)(3) IRS Exemption notice to confirm the supported organization's non-profit status. Once non-profit status is confirmed he will submit a check for an amount he determines necessary for the supported organization. There is a continuing relationship the trustee has with several discretionary supported organizations. The trustee has given funds to several organizations each year that are not required by the governing documents and these organizations have come to rely on these funds from the trust.

Part IV, Section A, Line 5a - Changes to Supported Organizations

There are 7 organizations listed in the governing documents that receive 70% of the support funds distributed by the trust. The remaining 30% is given at the discretion of the trustee. The total amount the trustee was allowed to distribute for 2015 was much higher (based on 2014 income) than it has been in previous years so this allowed the trustee to include more organizations to distribute funds at his discretion.

The following supported organizations were added in 2015:

- 1.) Public School Forum of NC - EIN 58-1654064
- 2.) NC Pediatric Society - EIN 31-1657902

Part IV, Section D, Line 2 - Explanation of Working Relationship

There are 7 supported organizations that are required to receive donations in the governing documents. These organizations expect to receive support from the trust every year. The majority of organizations that the trustee can choose at his discretion to send support to have been selected in previous years. These organizations can expect to receive support in the next couple of years if none was given in the current year. A historic and continuing relationship is developed with these discretionary funded
