Pt IV Sec E Ln 2a The University of New Orleans Foundation was formed for the sole purpose to support the University of New Orleans, a governmental body. To support the University, the Foundation's programs provide financial assistance for academic departments and administrative offices, scholarships and awards to students, and financial and personnel support for the University of New Orleans Robert E. Nims Center. To ensure responsiveness, the President/CEO and Chief Business/Financial Officer of The University of New Orleans are automatically appointed to The University of New Orleans Foundation's Board of Directors.

Pt IV Sec E Ln 2b University programs funded by the Foundation include financial assistance for academic departments and administrative offices, scholarships and awards to students, and financial and personnel support for the University of New Orleans Robert E. Nims Center. But for the support from the Foundation, The University of New Orleans would either have to discontinue or assume and administer these programs.
