Keepers of the Capsule:

In 2014 Urban Sparks sponsored the Keepers of the Capsule, a non-profit organization established in 1990 to assist the guardians or "Keepers" of the Washington Centennial Time Capsule. The volunteer Keepers pledged to preserve the time capsule and enlist new generations of Keepers every 25 years to support the capsule.

The Centennial Time Capsule, originally created in 1989 by the centennial commission, is a 3,000 pound green safe that contains a series of 16 stainless steel individual time capsule which will be filled with new items every 25 years. All of the capsules are slated to be opened in 2389, Washington State's 500th birthday. Over the last 2 years the Keepers of the Capsule have kept their mission of preserving the time capsule and enlisting new generations of Keepers for the next 25 year cycle. The Keepers of the Capsule project educated children and adults about Washington state history as a community of members across Washington State and a few from across the nation, while at the same time documenting Washington State history for future generations to come.

In 2015 The Keepers of the Capsule project entered a state of dormancy waiting for the next 25 year cycle to begin. The paid-forward funds from this generation, $2,146, were transferred to the Seattle Foundation's 'Centennial Time Capsule Fund' where they will wait for the next generation of Keepers.

Healthy Habits:

Healthy Habits' mission is to improve the chances of these young adults moving out of homelessness and into healthy, prosperous lives. Healthy Habits is structured around a variety of presentations and conversations on healthful eating, exercise, disease prevention, and self-care facilitated by naturopathic doctor Jeff Metzger, and is dedicated to improving the lives of the youth residents and elders at the Labateyah center. To improve the quality of food available to the teens and elders, Healthy Habits has developed donation partnerships with the Ballard Farmers Market, PCC Natural Markets, Whole Foods, and others. The Eclectic Institute, Pharmax, Western Herbs, and Restorative Formulations have donated medical supplies as well. The program collaborated with several local organizations to build an on-site garden to teach residents how to grow their own healthy foods.

Other Urban Sparks Program Expenses:

Urban Sparks continued its mission of facilitating and leading community projects as well as acting as a resource for those wanting to accomplish public projects and charitable work. We coach many projects without ever doing monetary business, helping them find resources to complete their projects: community and government contacts, like organizations, vendors, etc. We keep a website and database of resources and readily share them. We also share templates for a variety of documents needed by community groups to manage and fund projects, and we make key networking introductions to bolster neighborhood projects. We act as a free resource to approximately three groups for every one with which we have a fiscal sponsor relationship.

Other projects that we are involved with include:

Pt III, Line 31

Seattle AmeriCorps Collaborative:

Urban Sparks became fiscal sponsor for Seattle AmeriCorps Collaborative (SAC) to help accomplish their mission "to ensure that every AmeriCorps member's year of service is as fulfilling and impactful as possible; leveraging the talents, knowledge and resources of a connected and service minded community."

Urban Sparks sponsored the SAC organization kick-off and the first annual Stipend Life event - sharing tips for living on a stipend of $1,000/month.

Our executive director serves on SAC's advisory board, and SAC is an important ally in creating Service House.

Service House:

Urban Sparks is planning a Philanthropic Living/learning Center to provide full-time volunteers like AmeriCorps members with a welcoming and enriching first year so that they choose to continue to play important roles in philanthropic society as life-long donors, nonprofit managers, direct service providers, social entrepreneurs or civil servants.

In 2015 we presented Service House to the Washington (state) Commission for National and Community Service (WCNCS) and formed new partnerships with key philanthropic leaders.

Greenways:

While there were no specific expenditures in 2015, we were actively involved in coordination of greenway activities in Seattle. We are also fiscal sponsor for two greenways organization and holding donated and matching funds to be applied to future projects.
