990 Schedule F, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Part I, Line 2 - Grantmakers Explanation For Monitoring Use of Funds Outside US	Christ for Humanity requires periodic progress reports, as well as annual reports from the grant recipients. The organization works only with highly vetted international partners, known personally by the ministry's administrators, who have proven track records in completing humanitarian projects abroad. When projects are completed, these partners provide Christ for Humanity with a written report and, if possible, pictures documenting how funds were used. All reports, documentation and pictures are filed and logged in the organizations records.

Return Reference	Explanation
Grantmaker's Description of How Grants are Used	The majority of of assistance given to individuals in the United States is in the form of food, clothing, medicine and medical supplies, which are distributed personally by Christ for Humanity, its directors, staff and volunteers. Therefore, the organization monitors the distribution of assistance given to individuals firsthand. The organization monitors the use of grants and assistance given to domestic organizations and ministries by requiring reports, and pictures when possible, detailing how the grants were used. Additionally, the organization only works with highly vetted partners who are known personally by its administrators, who have proven track records in completing humanitarian projects.
