Part VIII - f Revenue is received through the Lincoln Center Box Office ticket exchange program. When a patron has purchased a ticket to a specific performance, but are unable to attend that performance and exchange their tickets for a different night at a different price, the difference is allocated to the Support League. There is also a donation box when patrons renew season tickets at the Lincoln Center.

Part VI - Section C - The Lincoln Center Support League has a non-discrimination statement so that anyone in the community may join. The Support League will not deny any community member from joining if they are not able to pay the membership dues. A copy of the final IRS documents are kept on file in the Administrative Offices of the Lincoln Center along with a copy kept with financial records for the current year. A copy of the completed forms are available to all members of the Support League and community upon request. Copies of financial information are available through the Colorado Secretary of State office where yearly materials are on file with renewal of financial information are available through the Colorado Secretary of State office where yearly materials are on file with renewal of

The Lincoln Center Support League continues to maintain a small amount of funds that were received through the Lincoln Center Capital Campaign for remodeling/renovation at the Lincoln Center. The staff at the Lincoln Center continue to look at ways these funds can be spent within the guidelines of the capital campaign. It is anticipated that the final amount will be allocated by the end of 2016.

NOTE: Schedule B was not filed this year since there were no donations/contributions over $5,000 in 2015.

Schedule G was not filed since there were no payments over $15,000 made to a professional fundraiser.
