compensation contingent on the net earnings of the organization	form 990, schedule j, part i, line 6a. State Fair of Texas maintains a capped management bonus plan for all employees, including department directors, vice presidents, senior vice presidents and the President. Each employee must complete written goals and objectives for their operating area which is approved by the President. The President makes assessments of all employees' (excluding himself) performance and achievement of written goals and objectives and their target bonus percentage and makes recommended bonus awards to the Finance/Audit Committee. The Finance/Audit Committee deliberates on the recommended awards and any bonus award for the President without management present and makes a recommendation to the Executive Committee of the Board of Directors ("Executive Committee"). The Executive Committee deliberates and decides on the final management bonus awards without management present. All such decisions of the Executive Committee are documented with contemporaneous minutes of its meetings.
