Explanation: Our additional extension form filed, form 8868 which was sent August 15 ,2016, was inadvertently unsigned. We were notified by IRS on October 4, 2016 in a CP211B notice dated September 26, 2016. We are immediately filing the form 990 by E-file. We will amend the return for any changes determined as the audit of the financial statement is still ongoing. We respectfully request the abatement of late filing penalty as we have never been late before and this was an oversight. Attached is a pdf of the form 8868 application for additional extesion of time to file an exempt organization return along with the certified mail receipt stamped August 15, 2016 and the return receipt as proof of our filing the form on time and our intention. Steps we are taking to ensure this never happens again are reminder checklists before sending out the additional extensions for signatures, changes to our user options to replace client signature to firm signature on the extensions,and reminders to change the reply address for additional extensions to firm address.
