Part I· Line 10 Grants and similiar amounts paid:
Grants to people or organizations in developing countries in need of clean water and for operating expenses and materials needed to conduct the water well drilling programs there. Countries where we established drilling programs were India and Haiti Amount given $69676 Grants for medical clinics, food aid, and/or orphanage support in developing countries Countries where we helped the people there were India, Haiti, and Mexico. Amount given 42,500. Approximate number of people helped was 6000.T
Grant for support of a program to provide prosthetic limbs for injured persons who cannot afford the equipment needed.
Approximate number of people helped 30. Amount given $22,000.
The number of people in need that GCF helps, if our well drilling model is successful is infinite. The model is to take the Water4 hand water well equipment kit to the developing countries in need, train a native team there with that equipment, and then leave it there for them to continue drilling badly needed water wells. Therefore, with each well drilled, thousands of people over the course of time will be helped not only physically, but also by having water available to water crops and livestock, thereby perpetuating	a long term sustaining lifestyle.
This program when properly supervised by a stable trustworthy overseer and with stable funding also	works as a longterm business model for employment of the people in that country. GCF desires to help make this possible in any way we can.
