DESIGN CHALLENGES AND EDUCATION PROGRAMS. Biomimicry Global Design Challenge. For the last six years, the Biomimicry Institute has worked with university students around the world through the Biomimicry Student Design Challenge (BSDC) to encourage innovative thinking inspired by nature that addresses real world problems. In 2014, the BSDC, officially morphed into the Biomimicry Global Design Challenge (BGDC) to allow for independent professionals to enter. The BGDC is a worldwide competition that asks students and professionals to solve pervasive sustainability problems using biomimicry. The BGDC 2015-2017 challenge is focused on food systems. In 2015 we attracted over 3300 registered users from over 70 countries onto the BGDC website. We had 76 teams from 17 countries participate through submissions. In October of 2015 five teams were chosen to move to the next stage of the challenge, our Biomimicry Accelerator. Over the course of a year, Accelerator teams will work with our business school partners and mentors to expand their design concepts and develop functioning prototypes. At the end of the program, after pitching their innovations to a panel of judges and a second time to a general public audience, the winner will receive the $100,000 Ray C. Anderson Foundation "Ray of Hope Prize." Other examples of the finalist teams include

ASKNATURE. The Biomimicry Institute's AskNature.org is the world's leading resource for understanding nature's survival strategies and their potential to inspire sustainable human designs. It's the only tool that gathers the world's biological intelligence, organizes it by function, and presents it in non-technical language. Since its launch in 2008, AskNature has attracted nearly 3 million students, educators, and professionals spanning the design, engineering, science, and business fields. AskNature has become the place for design challenge participants, Biomimicry Global Network members and those new to biomimicry to gather inspiration from nature's solutions to human centered problems. It is also a "go-to" for educators seeking to integrate biomimicry into their curriculum. With this free resource, anyone can learn how nature solves particular design problems, whether reducing drag, protecting from extreme temperatures, or creating color without toxins. The biggest gating factor to scaling AskNature has been its antiquated technical platform. Once we fixed this (see below), we have been able to integrate new content from both existing and new partners. Because this content comes from vetted sources, its integration requires minimal quality assurance. These partners include universities such as UC Berkeley and Arizona State, trained Biomimicry Professionals, biomimicry regional

BIOMIMICRY GLOBAL NETWORK (BGN). The Biomimicry Global Network (BGN) is a network of networks that include regional and professional networks. We continued work that began in 2014 through our Biomimicry Network Leaders to establish a model for how the Networks would function together. The Biomimicry Network Leaders Community (BNLC) is a peer-based learning and action network formed to share strategies and work collaboratively on projects that will grow and nourish all types of biomimicry networks. Their shared purpose is to increase knowledge of biomimicry and catalyze its application. Members of the BNLC are selected by their regional and professional networks to represent their networks at the global level. The model we chose for establishing our Biomimicry Global Network (BGN) was not one of centralized control, but rather a web of interconnected nodes. The commitment we made, and continue to make, to those in our Network was to provide the communication tools and conferences to keep people connected. In the beginning, this meant hosting annual conferences, from our Educator Summit to our Global Conference. As regional networks popped up, funded themselves, and grew, they increasingly wanted to host their own

Schedule I, Part I, Line 2 - The guidelines for design submissions and rules that oversee the Biomimicry Global Design Challenge and award process are posted on our Challenge website. For this particular situation of student cash awards we do not have criteria for monitoring the funds as it is a small cash award, given after the fact. However, our guidelines on the front-end of the challenge dictate how the designs are judged and the selection criteria we use to determine the award winners. For monitoring the use of general grant funds, we as a matter of practice, require a signed grant agreement which requires each partner to submit an interim progress report and a final project report including programmatic activities and project financial activities.

Part V Supplemental Information

Provide additional information for responses to questions on Schedule L (see instructions)

Schedule L, Part II - Biomimicry Group, Inc. (BGI) is a Delaware C Corporation with majority ownership by Janine Benyus, The Biomimicry Institute's (TBI) founder, former board president, and current non-voting member of the board of directors. TBI's and BGI's missions are uniquely aligned, therefore in 2010, BGI and TBI entered into a Services Agreement to better meet TBI's educational objectives, further its exempt activities and fulfill its broader mission to naturalize biomimicry in the culture by promoting the transfer of ideas, designs, and strategies from biology to sustainable human systems design.

Schedule L, Part IV - The Biomimicry Institute (TBI) shares resources and common costs in a mutually beneficial agreement with the Biomimicry Group (BGI). BGI is a for profit enterprise whose majority shareholder is TBI's founder, former board president and current non-voting board of director. The resource sharing agreement was amended in June of 2013, where TBI became the employer of its core staff, but shares facilities, equipment and overhead costs with BGI. Under the agreements the common costs and shared employees are allocated to each entity based on the actual costs incurred based on hours worked, square footage, or other basis that is most appropriate for the costs to be allocated. As of January 1, 2015 TBI no longer shared facilities, but still shared a few employees and overhead costs with BGI. In 2010 TBI also entered into a licensing agreement with BGI that allowed BGI to license intellectual property owned by TBI at fair market value. The agreement stipulated that BGI must pay TBI five percent of gross revenues received by BGI from the sale of products and services that directly use a material portion of the licensed materials. In 2015, this agreement was terminated.

Form 990, Part VI, Section A, Line 4 - In 2013 the Biomimicry Institute's bylaws were amended to include a permanent Board of Director's seat reserved for Ms Janine Benyus. In 2015 Ms Benyus became a non-voting member of the board

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 11b - Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 11a-11b: The following is the official Biomimicry Institute 990 policy included as part of its Board of Director's governance policies. The Biomimicry Institute recognizes that the Board of Directors has the right to review the Form 990 prior to its filing. Procedure is as follows. A. The Biomimicry Institute's senior management is responsible for the timely preparation of Form 990. B. The completed Form 990 will be provided to the Finance Committee of the Board of Directors sufficiently in advance of the filing deadline to enable a comprehensive and careful review by all members of the committee. Questions and concerns of the Finance Committee members will be addressed by the Biomimicry Institute's Financial Officer and incorporated into the Form 990 as appropriate. C. All members of the Board of Directors will be invited to view the completed Form 990 in advance of the filing deadline. Questions and concerns of the Board will be addressed by the Biomimicry Institute's Financial Officer and incorporated into the Form 990 as appropriate. D. After all of the input from the Board of Directors and Finance Committee has been appropriately addressed, senior management of the Biomimicry Institute will file the final Form 990 as required.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c - Part VI, Section B, Line 12c. According to the Biomimicry Institute's Conflict of Interest policy each director, principal officer and member of a committee with governing board-delegated powers shall annually sign a statement which affirms such person: a. has received a copy of the conflict of interest policy; b. has read and understands the policy; c. has agreed to comply with the policy; and d. understands TBI is charitable and in order to maintain its federal tax exemption it must engage primarily in activities which accomplish one or more of its tax-exempt purposes. In addition, our policy calls for periodic reviews to ensure TBI operates in a manner consistent with its charitable purposes and does not engage in activities that could jeopardize its tax-exempt status. The periodic reviews shall, at a minimum, include the following subjects: a. Whether compensation arrangements and benefits are reasonable based on competent survey information, and the result of arm's length bargaining; b. Whether partnerships, joint ventures, and reasonable investment or payments for goods and services, further charitable purposes and do not result in inurement, impermissible private benefit or in an excess benefit transaction.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15 - In 2012, a committee of the Biomimicry Institute's (TBI) Board of Directors reviewed and recommended the compensation for the Executive Director. The committee used data from the 2011 GuideStar Nonprofit Compensation Report. In addition, the board committee comprised their own data from like-minded organizations and positions. The current Executive Director's salary was based off that salary range and was, according to TBI policy, board approved. The current Executive Director's salary has not changed other than a one-time standard COLA raise, which all staff received. 15 b. During the annual budgeting process, the Executive Director reviews the compensation for each staff member who is expected to work on any TBI projects in the coming budget cycle. That review incorporates the Executive Director's judgement of the skills, education, and experience needed to accomplish TBI projects. The Executive Director also compares the salary rates with third party pay scale data. The result of this review is included as part of the budget and narrative provided to the Board of Directors for approval.

Schedule R, Part IV - The Biomimicry Institute (TBI) shares resources and common costs in a mutually beneficial agreement with the Biomimicry Group, Inc. (BGI). BGI is a for-profit social enterprise whose majority shareholder is TBI's founder and current non-voting board member. In 2010, TBI entered into an agreement to share costs such as the sharing of facilities, equipment, employees, and overhead costs. As of January 1, 2015, TBI no longer shares facilities, only a few administrative employees, equipment and overhead costs. Under the agreements, common costs and shared employees are allocated to each entity based on the actual costs incurred based on hours worked or other basis that is most appropriate for the costs to be allocated. In 2010 TBI had also executed a licensing agreement with BGI that allowed BGI to license intellectual property owned by TBI at a fair market value. BGI must pay TBI five (5) percent of gross revenues received by BGI from the sale of the products and services that directly use a material portion of the licensed materials. This agreement was terminated in 2015, therefore, this year's 990 will be the last which includes transactions of this kind.

Schedule R, Part V, Line 1e - Part Line 1 e, 1 j, 1 k, 1 l, 1 m, and 1 q : Although TBI did have the above mentioned transactions with a related organization, all the amounts are well below the reporting limits therefore no explanation is required.
