990 Schedule F, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Pt I Line 2	Recipients are elderly retirees who have no income other than a small government pension The grant amount is principally to pay for medications, in some cases for rent assistance, and for other living expenses The amount granted to each recipient is determined through annual visits and ongoing correspondence, including some telephone conversations to monit or each person's situation and needs

Return Reference	Explanation
Part III	The accounting method is cash. Accordingly, cash grants are recorded only as recipients pick up their money orders at the disbursing bank in Riga, where this organization maintains a checking account for disbursing such grant payments. The sole purpose of this account is to receive funds and make distributions to grantees. The bank charges a small service charge against the organization's account for each disbursement. Grant disbursements are typically made up to four times per year to each recipient.

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Pt VI, Line 10b	The corporate charter and bylaws are available for inspection, upon request, to anyone requesting a copy of Form 990. The organization has not adopted a formal conflict of interest policy. The organization does not maintain financial statements other than the bank account records and statements needed to complete information that is disclosed as part of this tax return.
Pt VI, Line 11b	A copy of the entire tax return, as well as supporting accounting records, is sent to each of the officers and directors for review prior to filing the tax return with the IRS.
Pt XI	The organization has carried a security on the books at cost for several years. The company for which the security is held is basically defunct. It was time to mark the security down to market value.
Pt VI, Line 2	The board members are all family members. However, wages/salaries are paid to any of the board members so no public or private contributions are being used for salaries.
Pt VI, Line 8b	All work is done by the governing body and those activities are all documented contemporaneously.
