Part IV

Supporting Organizations (continued)

Section B. Type I Supporting Organizations

	Yes	No
1 Did the directors, trustees, or membership of one or more supported organizations have the power to regularly appoint or elect at least a majority of the organization's directors or trustees at all times during the tax year? If "No," describe in Part VI how the supported organization(s) effectively operated, supervised, or controlled the organization's activities. If the organization had more than one supported organization, describe how the powers to appoint and/or remove directors or trustees were allocated among the supported organizations and what conditions or restrictions, if any, applied to such powers during the tax year.
2 Did the organization operate for the benefit of any supported organization other than the supported organization(s) that operated, supervised, or controlled the supporting organization? If "Yes," explain in Part VI how providing such benefit carried out the purposes of the supported organization(s) that operated, supervised or controlled the supporting organization.

Section C. Type II Supporting Organizations

	Yes	No
1 Were a majority of the organization's directors or trustees during the tax year also a majority of the directors or trustees of each of the organization's supported organization(s)? If "No," describe in Part VI how control or management of the supporting organization was vested in the same persons that controlled or managed the supported organization(s).

Section D. All Type III Supporting Organizations

	Yes	No
1 Did the organization provide to each of its supported organizations, by the last day of the fifth month of the organization's tax year, (1) a written notice describing the type and amount of support provided during the prior tax year, (2) a copy of the Form 990 that was most recently filed as of the date of notification, and (3) copies of the organization's governing documents in effect on the date of notification, to the extent not previously provided?
2 Were any of the organization's officers, directors, or trustees either (i) appointed or elected by the supported organization(s) or (ii) serving on the governing body of a supported organization? If "No," explain in Part VI how the organization maintained a close and continuous working relationship with the supported organization(s).
3 By reason of the relationship described in (2), did the organization's supported organizations have a significant voice in the organization's investment policies and in directing the use of the organization's income or assets at all times during the tax year? If "Yes," describe in Part VI the role the organization's supported organizations played in this regard.

Section E. Type III Functionally-Integrated Supporting Organizations

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c	The persons covered under the Allen Institute conflict of interest policy are the Institute's Board of Directors, principal officers, and key employees. The Allen Institute places upon all persons covered under the policy, a duty to disclose any actual or possible conflicts of interest to the Board of Directors. Furthermore, covered persons annually affirm that they have read and agree to comply with the policy. After disclosure of an actual or possible conflict, persons with a conflict shall be excused from the meeting during the discussion of, and the vote on, the transaction involving the possible conflict. The remaining disinterested Directors will determine whether a conflict of interest exists. If a conflict is found, the Board Chairperson, if appropriate, will appoint a disinterested person to investigate alternatives to the transaction that would not give rise to a conflict of interest. If any alternative transactions are not reasonable, the board shall determine by a majority vote of the disinterested Directors whether the conflicted transaction is fair, reasonable, and in the best interest of the Institute.
