The Midnight Mission's HomeLight Family Living Program goes beyond emergency care by providing long-term solutions with structure and an environment emphasizing accountability, responsibility and finding opportunities. We remove the obstacles to self sufficiency while our participant families learn basic living skills in a comprehensive and supportive 12-month program. The program provides individualized care coordination, professional services, work force development, budgeting and financial planning, to name a few. Families are given resources to settle into the program, and within 45 days are generally required to seek and obtain employment and begin providing their own resources within their household.
