Patient Support and Care for Kids Funds -Caring for someone with ALS is expensive and the financial impact on a family is usually two-fold As the ALS progresses, the family will likely lose that person's income and others in the home may have to quit their job(s) to provide care In the later stages of the disease, people require power wheelchairs, hospital beds, respiratory equipment, and professional 24 hour care and costs can easily exceed $200,000 per year This situation leaves many children with a parent suffering from ALS without any resources to enjoy simple childhood experiences such as summer camp, music lessons or playing team sports The Golden West Chapter provides "scholarships" so that children may have these types of experiences Each scholarship is $300 and is limited to two scholarships per household In the event a family may have more than two children, the scholarship award may be split among all the children in order to assist the family with sending all the children to camp or another program In addition to the scholarships, the Chapter from time to time will pay for a care giver or special therapy if the family is unable to pay for it

Return Reference	Explanation
Part X, Line 2	ALSA-GWC is exempt from taxation under Internal Revenue Code Section 501(c)(3) and California Revenue and Taxation Code Section 23701d. Generally accepted accounting principles provide accounting and disclosure guidance about positions taken by an organization in its tax returns that might be uncertain. Management has considered its tax positions and believes that all of the positions taken by ALSA-GWC in its federal and state exempt organization tax returns are more likely than not to be sustained upon examination. ALSA-GWC's returns are subject to examination by federal and state taxing authorities, generally for three and four years, respectively, after they are filed.
