Schedule I, Part I, Line 2	With each grant received, UNCF develops guidelines for the disbursement of scholarship funds which are outlined in a grant agreement with the granting agency. The guidelines may include a combination of selection criteria to include financial need, major, grade point average, residency, community service and other factors mutually agreed upon for each fund. Students apply for scholarships through UNCF's online application tool. Each applicant is reviewed based on the designated eligibility requirements for the scholarship. UNCF's online application includes a weighted scoring system to evaluate the applications. Then items are weighted up to a total points system of 100 points. Items evaluated include academic performance (GPA), honors and awards, community service, paid employment, leadership activities and essays. UNCF follows the agreed upon guidelines and time lines to monitor the use of the funds accordingly.
