PART XII - LINE 1	The accompanying financial statements have been prepared on the cash basis of accounting modified for the presentation of the marketable security at fair value, which is a comprehensive basis of accounting other than accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. Under that basis, certain revenue and related assets are recognized when received rather than when earned and certain expenses are recognized when paid rather than when the obligations are incurred. Consequently, the Fund does not recognize pledges receivable from donors, grants payable to donees or accounts payable to vendors and their related effects on the changes in net assets in the accompanying financial statements.
