Statement of Program Service Accomplishments

Check if Schedule O contains a response or note to any line in this Part III

1

Briefly describe the organization's mission

Access Group is an organization underpinned by a Membership comprised of nearly 200 American Bar Association (ABA)-approved nonprofit and state-affiliated law schools dedicated to improved educational access for diverse and underrepresented students, increased affordability, and enhanced and lasting value in legal education. This commitment is actualized through our research, grantmaking, policy analysis and advocacy, and educational services divisions. During its history, Access Group has continually evolved to meet the ever-changing challenges and needs of the students and institutions of higher education that we serve. As a strong and leading voice in each of our focus areas, we are driven by strategic initiatives and expanded programs designed to maintain the vibrancy and dynamism of our mission.

2

Did the organization undertake any significant program services during the year which were not listed on the prior Form 990 or 990-EZ?

Yes

No

If "Yes," describe these new services on Schedule O.

3

Did the organization cease conducting, or make significant changes in how it conducts, any program services?

Yes

No

If "Yes," describe these changes on Schedule O.

4

Describe the organization's program service accomplishments for each of its three largest program services, as measured by expenses. Section 501(c)(3) and 501(c)(4) organizations are required to report the amount of grants and allocations to others, the total expenses, and revenue, if any, for each program service reported.

4a

(Code) (Expenses $ 123,244,067 including grants of $ 1,664,229) (Revenue $ 167,407,444)

The primary activity is in support of the organization's student loan borrowers in facilitating timely repayment through interest rate reduction incentives and providing quality customer service, counseling, issue resolution, default aversion and post default management. In addition, the organization provides continuing development activities around affordable student loan programs and maintenance of infrastructure to promote access to higher education through lending programs offered to students at member and other postsecondary institutions when needed. The organization conducts and sponsors research, policy analysis, services and projects that seek to further enhanced access, affordability and value of legal education specifically, and graduate and professional education more generally. Moreover, the organization offers financial aid, needs analysis and related financial literacy educational services to students and member school (and other graduate and professional) administrators in furtherance of the organization's mission.

Part III Supplemental Information

Provide the information, explanation, or descriptions required for Part I, lines 1a, 1b, 3, 4a, 4b, 4c, 5a, 5b, 6a, 6b, 7, and 8, and for Part II. Also complete this part for any additional information.

Return Reference	Explanation
Health or social club dues or initiation fees	Schedule J, Part I, Line 1a The Organization will reimburse membership fees to health clubs for all employees up to a maximum of $200 per year for any employee who provides sufficient substantiation as required under the Organization's policy related thereto.
Supplemental Nonqualified Retirement Plan	Schedule J, Part I, Line 4b Christopher Chapman - $31,221 Charles Albano - $7,714 The organization sponsors an eligible deferred compensation plan described in 457(b) of the Internal Revenue Code which is available to certain, eligible senior executives. Under this plan, eligible executives may defer a portion of their current year cash compensation, subject to the limits imposed by the Internal Revenue Code for such deferrals. The deferred amounts remain subject to any claim of the organization's general creditors until disbursed pursuant to the terms and conditions of the plan, and subject to any other applicable law or regulation. For this reporting period, Christopher Chapman, Charles Albano and Kathleen Smith were eligible to defer compensation under the plan. The organization sponsors a nonqualified, supplemental retirement plan described in 457(f) of the Internal Revenue Code which is available to certain, eligible senior executives. The plan is unfunded and the assets remain subject to substantial risk of forfeiture prior to vesting and distribution to a participant pursuant to the terms and conditions of the plan. For this reporting period, only Christopher Chapman was the only senior executive eligible to receive an allocation.
Non-fixed Payments	Schedule J, Part I, Line 7 The Organization's Corporate Employee Incentive Program (C-EIP) seeks (1) to emphasize certain near-to-medium term activities that further the Company's long-term mission, goals and objectives, and (2) to reward employees for attaining certain performance levels relating thereto. Each Eligible Employee may be awarded a Bonus Payout subject to the terms and conditions of this C-EIP, including approval by the compensation and benefits committee of the board of directors. Any such Bonus Payout will be disbursed after all required approvals and after such date as may be determined by The Organization's Board of Directors or Chief Executive Officer, as may be appropriate, however, Bonus Payouts traditionally have been disbursed within 120 days of the final day of the applicable fiscal Year. Bonus Payouts are disbursed pursuant to the Organization's payroll procedures and are subject to all applicable withholding taxes and other required or otherwise authorized withholding, if any.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 11b	Form 990 Review Process This IRS Form 990 was prepared by the Organization's management, in consultation with the Organization's external tax accountants and attorneys Pursuant to the provisions of its charter, the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors reviewed a draft of this Form 990 at a meeting prior to filing A complete copy of this Form 990, including all required schedules, was made available to each of the Organization's directors prior to its filing with the IRS

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Line 12c	Conflict of Interest Policy Monitoring & Enforcement The Organization's conflict of interest policy requires each interested person (defined as the Organization's directors, officers, and key employees) to disclose any financial interest (certain ownership interest or compensation arrangements) they may have in connection with a proposed transaction between the Organization and a third party. The Board of Directors will determine if such financial interest constitutes a conflict of interest and will employ the policy's procedures for addressing any such conflict. All interested persons provide a written certification annually affirming that they have received and understand the policy and agree to comply with it, and listing any conflicts, business relationships or family relationships that may give rise to a conflict. The Audit Committee of the Board considers all disclosed issues and management monitors and reports any actual or potential conflicts.

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Line 15a	Process for Determining Compensation The process for determining the compensation of the President and CEO of the Organization is delegated by the Board of Directors to its Compensation and Benefits Committee, with such committee comprised of outside, independent Directors. It is the practice of the Compensation and Benefits Committee to review the performance of the Organization's President and CEO periodically (generally on an annual basis) and to periodically engage a third-party, independent compensation consultant to establish the market compensation range for the position. This consultant generally establishes this range by identifying the compensation of a parallel position at comparable organizations and taking various factors into account, including but not limited to each applicable organization's industry, geographic region, complexity, size, and tax status. The Compensation and Benefits Committee reviews the information from its compensation consultant and any other relevant information, discusses such information outside of the presence of the President and CEO, and authorizes, on the record, any changes to such officer's compensation.

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Line 15b	Process for Determining Compensation The process for determining the compensation of other officers of the Organization generally follows the process used for all employees, except for the CEO as described in the answer to Part VI, line 15B herein. Generally, the CEO, or such other person as may be appropriate based on management reporting lines and other relevant factors, conducts an annual performance review all other officers and key employees, and communicates the results of such review to the reviewed officer or key employee. In addition, the Organization periodically engages a third-party, independent compensation consultant to establish the market compensation range for the applicable positions. This consultant generally establishes this range by identifying the compensation of a parallel position at comparable organizations and taking various factors into account, including but not limited to each applicable organization's industry, geographic region, complexity, size, and tax status. The CEO, generally in consultation with the Human Resources division, approves the establishment of compensation levels for officers or key employees as follows: (1) directly for his/her direct reports, (2) in consultation with applicable officers, for officers and key employees who do not directly report to him/her, except that any changes to the compensation of the executive vice president and chief operating officer and the vice president and chief compliance officer (as top internal audit executive) are subject to the approval of the compensation and benefit committee.
