Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 11b: Before the Form 990 is filed both the Officers

Executive Committee made up of three members-Grand Ruler, Secretary and Treasurer-and the three member Financial Auditing Committee are provided a copy of the completed return for review. These six individuals review the Form 990 and discuss the return with the full Board of Directors at the regularly scheduled meeting held in June. If any items are questioned, these are discussed with the return preparer and the items are explained to the six members making up the two select committees and, if necessary, corrections are made to the Form 990 and reviewed again by the six individuals of the two committees. All items affecting the Form 990 are then considered correct before the filing of the Form 990 shortly after June 30th

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12b: The organization's policy requires that any officer or director who would hold a position of authority or ownership in an entity which does a significant amount of business with the organization to disclose in writing to the organization what that position is and if the position with the vendor or supplier entity might necessitate that person resigning from the position held with the organization. The written communication shall state what the duties of the individual holds in the organization that might effect their decision in doing business with the affected entity. The written communication shall be made to the Grand Ruler who shall disclose the written communication to the full Board of Directors. Annually each Office & Director are given a questionnaire which asks that the Entity for whom each of the individuals work for or entities owned be listed and this list is reviewed and discussed with the full Board of Directors. If this list indicated a possible conflict of interest based on general knowledge that could create a question of whether a conflict exist, then the affected individual is asked to make a written response if the individual has not already made the written response to the Grand Ruler

Form 990, Part VI, Section C, Line 19: The organization's policy is to make these documents available to anyone who would desire to review them. Anyone who desires to review the documents may call the Lodge and speak with the attendant who shall take the request.
