The Bishop's University Foundation exists solely to provide financial assistance to Bishop's University, in the form of funding for:

Scholarships, Bursaries, Research, Student Support, Faculty Support, Student Programs and Projects, Athletics, Library Acquisitions, etc.

Both entities are located in Sherbrooke, Quebec, Canada.

The Foundation and the University are both externally audited by the same firm, which ensures that the amounts declared as disbursed to the University by the Foundation concur with the amounts reported as having been received per the University's records, and also that the funds are disbursed as per the designations attached to the funds, if applicable.

Most amounts are transferred from the Foundation to the University via an inter-company general ledger account.
