Return Reference	Explanation
PART X, LINE 2	The committee assesses its tax position in accordance with "accounting for uncertainties in income taxes "as prescribed by the accounting standards codification, which provides guidance for financial statement recognition and measurement of uncertain tax positions taken or expected to be taken in a tax return for open tax years (generally a period of three years from the later of each return's due date or the date filed) that remain subject to examination by the committee's major tax jurisdictions. Generally, the committee is no longer subject to income tax examinations by its major taxing authorities for years before April 30, 2013. The committee assesses its tax positions and determines whether it has any material unrecognized liabilities for uncertain tax positions. The committee records these liabilities to the extent it deems them more likely than not to be incurred. Interest and penalties related to uncertain tax positions, if any, would be classified as a component of income tax expense. The committee believes that it does not have any significant uncertain tax positions requiring recognition or measurement.
