Check if Schedule O contains a response or note to any line in this Part VII

Section A. Officers, Directors, Trustees, Key Employees, and Highest Compensated Employees

1a Complete this table for all persons required to be listed. Report compensation for the calendar year ending with or within the organization's tax year.

- List all of the organization's current officers, directors, trustees (whether individuals or organizations), regardless of amount of compensation. Enter -0- in columns (D), (E), and (F) if no compensation was paid.
- List all of the organization's current key employees, if any. See instructions for definition of "key employee."
- List the organization's five current highest compensated employees (other than an officer, director, trustee or key employee) who received reportable compensation (Box 5 of Form W-2 and/or Box 7 of Form 1099-MISC) of more than $100,000 from the organization and any related organizations.
- List all of the organization's former officers, key employees, or highest compensated employees who received more than $100,000 of reportable compensation from the organization and any related organizations.
- List all of the organization's former directors or trustees that received, in the capacity as a former director or trustee of the organization, more than $10,000 of reportable compensation from the organization and any related organizations.

List persons in the following order: individual trustees or directors; institutional trustees; officers; key employees; highest compensated employees; and former such persons.

| Part X, Line 2   | Federal Income Tax The Foundation is organized as a not-for-profit corporation other than a private foundation, and is exempt from income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the United States Internal Revenue Code and related state laws. Accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America require management to evaluate tax positions taken by the Foundation and recognize a tax liability if the Foundation has taken an uncertain position that more likely than not would not be sustained upon examination by various federal and state taxing authorities. Management has analyzed the tax positions taken by the Foundation, and has concluded that as of May 31, 2016 and 2015, there are no uncertain positions taken or expected to be taken that would require recognition of a liability or disclosure in the accompanying financial statements. As such, the Foundation is generally exempt from income taxes. However, the Foundation is required to file Federal Form 990 - Return of Organization Exempt From Income Tax, and a similar state return, which are informational returns only. The Foundation is subject to routine audits by taxing jurisdictions. However, as of the date the financial statements were available to be issued, there were no audits for any tax periods in progress. |

| Part I, Line 2   | Grant Determination - The Foundation determines eligible grant recipients objectively based upon established criteria that has been approved by the Board of Trustees. All grant programs require completion of a program-specific formal application. Depending upon the program, applications are reviewed by board committees who may approve recipients on behalf of the Foundation or volunteer committees who make recommendation for approval to the Board of Trustees. Grant Monitoring - Individuals receiving scholarship grants are required to provide proof of enrollment in school before funds are released. SIS Grants and Continuing Education recipients include specific use of funds in program applications. Organizations receiving grant support are requested to provide annual final grant reports which outline use and impact of funding. Should a final grant report not be received, the Foundation may consider not awarding future funding to the organization. |

| Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c | The Foundation Trustees, officers and employees annually disclose or update to the Executive Committee of the Board of Trustees, interests that could give rise to conflicts of interest. The Executive Committee determines the appropriate course of action which may include, but is not limited to, taking no action, providing full disclosure to the Board of Trustees, asking the person to recuse themselves from participation in related discussions or decisions within the Foundation, asking the person to resign from his/her position, or possible removal from his/her position. The Executive Director also monitors proposed or ongoing transactions for conflicts of interest and is to disclose them to the Executive Committee in order to deal with potential or actual conflicts, whether discovered before or after the transaction has occurred. |
| Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15a | The compensation of the Executive Director is reviewed and approved by the Board of Trustees or Personnel Committee, using data as to comparable compensation for similarly qualified persons in functionally comparable positions at similarly situated organizations. This may include but is not limited to a survey of similar fraternal entities in the local area, utilization of United States Bureau of Labor Statistics for similar positions in the local area, utilization of the Consumer Price Index for urban areas and/or utilization of performance evaluations by board members and the Executive Director. This process was last performed in 2015.                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
| Form 990, Part VI, Section C, line 19  | The Foundation provides, upon request to the Executive Director, copies of the Articles of Incorporation, Bylaws, Conflict of Interest Policy, Whistleblower Policy, Form 990 and audited financial statements.
