Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule I, Part I, Line 2	The Vice President for Finance collects grant award letters and instructions from the granting agencies of the BCU grant managers. The Vice President for Finance keeps a fiscal file for each grant, including award letters, instructions, annual accounting records, and financial reports submitted to the grantors. Either the Vice President for Finance or the grant manager submits reports to agencies, depending on the grant. The Vice President for Finance creates a budget for each grant in the grants fund, based on award letters and input from the BCU grant managers. If the grant allows, grant managers may request budget transfers within their grant, which the Vice President for Finance or the Assistant Vice President for Finance enter in Datatel. The grant manager signs off on expenditures for the grant. The Vice President for Finance reviews all grant expenditures monthly, with more in-depth review as needed for reporting to grantors. The Vice President for Finance reconciles grant expenditures annually for both BCU fiscal year and the grant fiscal year, if different. Financial aid grants are approved and reported by the Financial Aid department. Checks for grant revenues are received in the Business Office, some agencies mail them to the grant managers, who then turn them in to the Business Office for deposit. Some agencies pay BCU through direct deposit into BCU checking accounts. The Vice President for Finance draws down federal grant funds electronically through the online G5 system, drawdowns are usually done monthly.
