Explanation: The Women's Foundation finalized the annual financial audit in January 2017. The preparation of the Women's Foundation Form 990 was completed in February 2017. Once the return was completed it went through a review by the Women's Foundation Finance Committee. Once all questions are answered and changes/updates are completed the Form 990 goes to the Women's Foundation Board of Directors for review. Once the return has been reviewed by the board it is filed. This process resulted in requesting a first and second extension to complete the Form 990 and schedules.

Schedule I, Part I, Line 2	The Women's Foundation awards grants to 501(c)(3) organizations based on an application and thorough review process. Potential grantees are required to submit copies of their most recent audit (if they have one) and Form 990 or annual financial statement information provided to their board of directors. During the review process, the programs are physically visited. Upon receipt of the grant, grantees receive a list of compliance requirements and understand that by cashing their grant check they are agreeing to act in accordance with those requirements. Twice a year, grantees are required to submit evaluations and reports of budgeted and actual revenue and expense for funded programs. These reports are reviewed and grantees are interviewed further should there be any additional questions. Organizations may be required to return funds if they are not in compliance with grant requirements.
