Pt III, Line 31	Throughout the year, the League provided various opportunities for members to gain leadership skills. The year kicked off with our annual Leadership Retreat held at the Highland Lake Inn in Flat Rock, NC in June 2015. The retreat was a time to train new committee chairs and co-chairs on League procedures as well as begin creating annual plans for each committee and Council. The League also held a Mid-Year Retreat in which members got a chance to hear from three female coaches and the Director of Athletics at UNC Asheville on what it's like to be a female leader in a male dominated industry. We also reviewed our strategic plan and brainstormed ideas on how to honor our upcoming 90th anniversary at the Mid-Year Retreat. Further, each member received experiential leadership training by being members of committees or Councils in which they are tasked with operating a function or program of the League. The League provided members with knowledge regarding how to run a meeting, prepare an agenda and minutes for meetings, and how to communicate issues appropriately through the organizational structure. Additionally, League members are trained on how to take an idea and make it a reality while working in a safe space.
