Part III Statement of Program Service Accomplishments

Check if Schedule O contains a response or note to any line in this Part III

☒ X1 Briefly describe the organization's mission:

To equip PreK-12 schools with standards-based resources and professional development to teach economics and personal finance using practical, innovative and inspirational methods.

2 Did the organization undertake any significant program services during the year which were not listed on the prior Form 990 or 990-EZ?☐ Yes ☒ No

If "Yes," describe these new services on Schedule O.

3 Did the organization cease conducting, or make significant changes in how it conducts, any program services?☐ Yes ☒ No

If "Yes," describe these changes on Schedule O.

4 Describe the organization's program service accomplishments for each of its three largest program services, as measured by expenses. Section 501(c)(3) and 501(c)(4) organizations are required to report the amount of grants and allocations to others, the total expenses, and revenue, if any, for each program service reported4a (Code) (Expenses $ 354,510. including grants of $ 1,273.) (Revenue $ 19,910.)

Teacher Training: K-12 educators in Arkansas are required to have 36 hours per year of professional development training, and we are certified by the Arkansas Department of Education to provide these hours through our workshops and in-service training to schools. We host multi-day workshops in the summer, plus training throughout the school year. We are affiliated with six university centers of economic education, who we partner with to host some of these workshops. The centers are listed on our website - www.economicsarkansas.org.

4b (Code) (Expenses $ 176,902. including grants of $ 14,295.) (Revenue $ 69,015.)

The Stock Market Game(TM): Each school year, we host 2, 10 week sessions - one in the fall and one in the spring. Student teams are registered by their teachers to participate and are given a $100,000 hypothetical portfolio to invest over a ten-week time frame. Students trade "live" in the stock market during each session, and the goal is to grow their portfolio as much as possible. This standards-based game integrates technology, math, social studies, higher level thinking, team building and economics into one engaging learning tool for teachers. It is our largest student based program with over 12,800 participating last year.

4c (Code) (Expenses $ 84,270. including grants of $ 16,097.) (Revenue $)

Teacher grants and awards program: Each year teachers are invited to apply for grant funding so they can integrate economics and personal finance projects in the classroom. Teachers who receive grant funding may submit their projects for judging in the summer, and we select up to 12 winners statewide to be honored during our annual Bessie B. Moore Awards Program and Luncheon. These educators are going "above and beyond" to integrate economics into the classroom, and we believe it is important the teachers are recognized for their outstanding work to increase the economic literacy of their students.

4d Other program services (Describe in Schedule O.)

(Expenses $ 88,668. including grants of $) (Revenue $)

4e Total program service expenses ▶ 704,350.

Other EA program initiatives offered by Economics Arkansas include CEE/NAEE Dues, the Economics Calendar Program and newsletter and public relations. The CEE/NAEE dues allow us discounts on economic education materials, information on national awards for exemplary economic education programs, priority access to regional and national economic education conferences and opportunities to participate in national program initiatives. The Economics Calendar Program encourages students in Kindergarten through 8th grade to submit drawings of economic concepts they've learned in the classroom. Economics Arkansas publishes a newsletter two times per year that alert over 5,000 people about upcoming professional development opportunities, grants and scholarship prospects, economic education resources, lesson plans and programs offered by Economics Arkansas and its many program partners. In addition, the newsletter reports workshop and program statistics in narrative and graphic forms. While it also contains organizational and fundraising information, the bulk of the newsletter focuses on program activities to educate and recruit teachers to implement economic education and personal finance concepts in their classrooms, thus furthering our outreach. Beginning in March 2016, the newsletter in its current form was split into two separate communications: one for education administrators and teachers, and another for donors, partners and supporters. These communications are sent in electronically and also available for download from our website. Similarly, Economics Arkansas utilizes part of its public relations budget to support teacher and student presentations as well as Thanksgiving cards sent to educators
