Part V   Supplemental Information

Provide the information required by Part I, line 2 (monitoring of funds); Part I, line 3, column (f) (accounting method; amounts of investments vs. expenditures per region); Part II, line 1 (accounting method); Part III (accounting method); and Part III, column (c) (estimated number of recipients), as applicable. Also complete this part to provide any additional information (see instructions).

990 Schedule F, Supplemental Information

| Return Reference | Explanation   |
|------------------|---|
| Part I, Line 2   | Scholarships/grants awarded to students who are studying abroad are applied to their student accounts. The scholarships offset tuition and fees to reduce the amount that students owe to the University. Thus, the students do not physically receive the money. Procedures do not differ from those applied to students who are attending on campus, other than verification of participation and completion of the program. The following are the procedures followed by the University for monitoring the use of scholarship/grant funds. The Business Office notifies the Financial Aid Office of amounts available to award to students each academic year. The Financial Aid Office selects recipients based upon criteria established for each type of funding. The Financial Aid Office notifies the Business Office of expenditures for each term during the academic year. At year-end, the Financial Aid Office and Business Office reconcile accounts for all funds. The Development Office provides annual reports to the donors regarding the use of donor-contributed scholarship funds (endowed or annually funded). |

990 Schedule F, Supplemental Information

| Return Reference | Explanation   |
|------------------|---|
| Part I, line 3   | Expenditures are accounted for under the accrual method |

990 Schedule F, Supplemental Information

| Return Reference | Explanation   |
|------------------|---|
| Part IV          | The University had ownership interests in foreign corporations, passive foreign investment companies and foreign partnerships through investments. However, the University does not meet the filing requirements for Forms 5471, 8621, or 8865, respectively, based upon each form's filing instructions. |

Part IV

Supplemental Information. Provide the information required in Part I, line 2, Part III, column (b), and any other additional information.

| Return Reference | Explanation  |
|------------------|--|
| Part I, Line 2   | Procedures for monitoring of scholarships - The Business Office notifies the Financial Aid Office of amounts available to award to students each academic year. The Financial Aid Office selects recipients based upon criteria established for each type of funding. The Financial Aid Office notifies the Business Office of expenditures for each term during the academic year. At year-end, the Financial Aid Office and Business Office reconcile accounts for all funds. The Development Office provides annual reports to the donors regarding the use of donor-contributed scholarship funds (endowed or annually funded). Procedures for monitoring research grants - There are several different departments that offer research grants at Willamette. Each department has different monitoring procedures for the use of grant funds. However, the monitoring procedures typically involve the following: a written and/or verbal report on the research project must be submitted during and/or at the conclusion of the project; receipts must be submitted for reimbursement of project expenditures. Final payment of grant funds is often contingent on the aforementioned items. The Department that awards the grants handles the related monitoring of those grant funds. Procedures for monitoring other awards and prizes - Award/prize recipients are determined by criteria established by the respective departments. Departments work with the Accounting Office to make sure that the award funds are disbursed to the correct student or faculty member. |

| ReturnReference                   | Explanation  |
|---------------------------------------|--|
| Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11 | Form 990 and all its accompanying schedules are reviewed by the controller, the Senior Vice President for Finance and Administration, and the chair of the audit committee. The audit committee chair performs a review of Schedule B on behalf of the audit committee and reports any concerns to the committee. After their review, a revised draft (Schedule B omitted) is made available to the audit committee and reviewed at a special meeting. Board members are then notified via e-mail that form 990 is available to review on a secure website that can only be accessed by members of the board of trustees. After the form has been reviewed by all noted parties it is modified (if necessary), finalized, and submitted to the IRS. |

| Form 990,Part VI,Section B,line 12c | The conflict of interest policy is distributed and reviewed annually to those whom it applies: officers, members of the Board of Trustees, key employees, and highly compensated employees. All trustees, officers, key employees, and highly compensated employees must complete, sign and return the policy to the President or the Senior Vice President for Finance and Administration. The board's process for addressing conflicts of interest in accordance with the adopted above-referenced policy is as follows: "if an individual believes that he or she may have a conflict of interest, the individual shall promptly and fully disclose the conflict on a form to the chairman of the board of trustees or president, or the chair of any committee of the board considering the matter, and shall refrain from participating on behalf of the university in the matter to which the conflict relates until the conflict question has been waived by vote of the Board of Trustees or a committee of the board after the material facts of the transaction and the individual's interest are disclosed or known to the board or committee of the board, or otherwise resolved in compliance with the Oregon Nonprofit Corporation Act (ORS ch. 65)." The board chair, board treasurer, and administrative secretary to the board monitor compliance on an ongoing basis. Monitoring activities may include review of meeting minutes by the Administrative Secretary to identify potential/developing conflicts or conflicts that may have already occurred and informal discussions with committee chairs or board officers to raise awareness of conflicts and potential conflicts. |

| Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15a | An ad hoc committee of members of the Board of Trustees established the compensation for the President of the University. The committee consisted of three members who did not have a conflict of interest per IRS regulations section 53.4958-6(c)(1)(iii). In order to establish an appropriate level of compensation, the committee gathered data from similar sized private liberal arts colleges located in the northwestern United States. The data from the schools was obtained directly from each institution. In addition, a nationwide review of compensation as reported on the 990's of other similar sized private liberal arts universities was performed. Once the amount was decided upon, the information was passed on to the Executive Committee. The Executive Committee subsequently approved the compensation package. The last time this process was undertaken by the University was in August of 2014. |
